Are Seated & Barber Coinage Ready to Explode?

by John Feigenbaum

Anyone who hasn't been living under a rock for the past two years knows that the rare coin market is red hot. Coin prices are up in many categories, and some coins have enjoyed tremendous gains in just the past decade. We sold an 1884 Trade Dollar in our November 2004 Richmond II Sale for $310,500 that had sold for $69,000 just 8 years earlier.

Prices are up in many series from Indian Cents to Gold pieces, and coins that are now worth three times their value in 2000 are not unusual. Upon close examination, however, there are some glaring omissions among the big gainers. When the market first showed signs of strength in mid-late 2000, the initial gainers were Bust coinage. Since that time, we've seen explosive growth in many areas, including Red Copper coinage, Buffalo Nickels, Mercury Dimes, Standing Liberty Quarters, Walkers and, most notably, Morgan Dollars. Another area of huge appreciation has been key date coinage like 1909-S VBD Cents, 1796 Quarters, 1889-CC Morgans, and 1911-D Quarter Eagles.

As dealers, we are not puzzled by the recent run-ups. In fact, we have become more secure in our belief in current market levels because our hobby is witnessing a renaissance of new enthusiasts as well the return of many old collector friends. The Internet has proven to be an ideal medium to allow dealers and collectors to transact business, and the velocity and overall size of our market has ballooned.

Missing the Party

In all the excitement, a noticeable group of coinage has remained quiet – almost unnoticed as headlines are being written on every other topic. You guessed it... Seated and Barber Coinage. The prices of Silver coinage in the era of 1839-1916 – in denominations from Half Dimes to Silver Dollars – have stayed essentially the same for over a decade, with a handful of exceptions (i.e. 1896-S Quarter in MS65 has risen from $14,000 in August 1998 to $33,000 today). Overall, prices for these series have remained largely unchanged over this period.

Not for the Faint of Heart

There are several reasons that these series have been overlooked. For starters, the Seated Dime, Quarter and Half Dollar issues spanned a long time. Depending on the issue, these coins were Minted anywhere from 1837-1891, with over 110 coins each in the basic business strike sets. (Seated Half Dimes are the most accessible – with the fewest number of difficult coins – if you don't count the unique 1870-S.) Additionally, the coins are quite scarce, and some unknown in Mint State grades, requiring the collector to have deep pockets, as well as a great deal of patience. Many of the coins do not come up for sale for years at a time. The Seated Quarter series is home, among other rarities, to the 1873-CC Quarter, No Arrows. Only five examples are known of this issue. In the very short Twenty Cent series, the 1876-CC is rare enough (with 12-15 known) to intimidate most seekers.

Table 1. Weighted GPA of coins in Basic (Business Strike) Sets on the PCGS Registry by series.

Business Strike Series	Sets Weighted GPA	% Complete
Seated Half Dimes	64.03	14%
Seated Dimes	58.46	99%
Barber Dimes	66.21	100%
Seated Quarters	65.92	5%
Barber Quarters	65.86	100%
Seated Halves	51.75	97%
Barber Halves	66.46	100%
Walking Liberty Halves	66.57	100%
Morgan Dollars	65.93	100%

As a testament to the difficulty of obtaining these sets, consider the average grade of coins in the top-rated PCGS Registry sets in the accompanying Table 1. You will note that it is possible to complete the Barber sets in high grades, but there are far fewer sets at this level of quality compared with the Walker and Morgan sets.

As the table demonstrates, the Barber series are actually much more attainable in Mint State than their Seated counterparts. Only the Barber Quarter series has issues that require the buyer to spend five figures to complete a set in MS60 – the 1901-S. There are key dates in all three sets, but the sets are challenging and rewarding to complete. Unlike twentieth century series, like Buffalo Nickels and Mercury Dimes, these sets require patience over money. One collector recently told me that he was taking a break from Morgans because he ran out of money too quickly. That's a rare complaint from Barber collectors. From them, you are more likely to hear that they cannot find enough to suit their budget! We tend to consider a Barber issue "common" if the population in MS65 is 10 or more coins. In the Morgan Dollar series, that would be a rarity, worthy of $100,000 or more.

Let's compare the 1895-O Morgan Dollar with the 1895-O Barber Dime. There are 209 total Mint State coins graded of the Morgan issue (PCGS and NGC combined) and CDN Bid ranges from $13,000 in MS60 to $160,000 in MS65. In contrast, the Dime, has a total Mint State population of 45 coins, CDN Bid is $4,400 in MS60 and $12,500 in MS65. Collectors and investors alike are starting to appreciate the potential hidden in these other series.

Registry Date-Only Sets

Also likely to attract more collectors to the Seated and Barber series is this increasing popularity of the Date-Only Registry series. NGC recently instituted "One Per Date" registry sets, which allow both PCGS and NGC coins to be registered. Allowing collectors this easy entry point to these difficult series is sure to benefit the series as a whole, and we applaud PCGS and NGC for the initiative. Ultimately, collectors will easily complete these date sets, whetting their appetites for obtaining the more challenging mintmark issues.

Patience & Knowledge

One other important factor has contributed to the muted rise of prices in the Seated and Barber series: availability. Even the slightly better dates can be very hard to locate, and much patience is necessary to complete these sets. The main requirement of the collector of Morgan Dollars, 20th-century issues like Buffalo Nickels, Washington Quarters or Mercury Dimes, is simply capital. Even the scarcest dates can generally be found, at a price, so completion time is determined by one's budget.

Collectors of Seated and Barber coins are required to be patient and diligent in the pursuit of their collections. It can take years to complete a set of Barber Quarters, especially if you insist on a specific grade, like MS63. In addition, the concept of trying to complete any one of these sets in just PCGS or NGC holders, is impractical. There simply aren't enough coins to go around.

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both report the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight seen. The coins may be certified or "Raw" (uncertified) but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current grading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGHT-UNSEEN market; such Bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his bid, but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/ASK levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

Another characteristic of the Seated and Barber collector is a thirst for knowledge. Collectors of these series are generally long time enthusiasts of coins who have graduated from other series, and they typically will do a lot more research to support the values of their coins.

Opportunity Knocks

I have been meaning to write about these two series for some time now, but I was inspired to write this article now because of the special circumstances which will be presented to the numismatic community in the near future. In conjunction with the January 2005 FUN Show, Heritage Numismatic Auctions will sell one of the finest collections of certified Barber coins to ever come to market. There have been some fabulous Barber collections sold over the past decade (Eliasberg, Pittman, Price, Childs, etc.) but the Hugon collection may be the finest assembled in overall grade. Before writing this article, Mr. Hugon kindly gave me details of the overall quality of his incredible collection. Table 2 lists the individual sets with their average grade. The opportunity to obtain coins of this quality is rare indeed, and I suspect many new collectors will be inspired.

Table 2 Series	Total Coins	Ave Grade Hugon	Ave Grade Richmond
Barber Dimes - Mint State	74	66.03	64.13
Barber Dimes - Proof	24	67.17	64.88
Barber Quarters - Mint State	74	66.34	64.09
Barber Quarters - Proof	24	68.08	64.92
Barber Halves - Mint State	73	66.40	63.77
Barber Halves - Proof	24	67.38	64.83

Table 2. Number of coins in the basic date and mintmark sets of Barber Dimes, Quarters & Halves, along with the average grades of the coins in the Hugon and Richmond Collections.

The third portion of the Richmond Collection will be sold on March 7, 2005, by DLRC Auctions, and this too affords a tremendous opportunity to both seasoned and new collectors. In contrast to the Hugon Collection, the Barbours offered in Richmond represent more modest Mint State examples, which will speak to a completely different type of collector. Like the Hugon, the Barber sets are complete in Mint State and Proof. Interestingly, Hugon has a gem 1892-O Micro "O" Half while Richmond contains the finest known 1894-S dime. What a great combination!

For Seated coinage, the Richmond collection may well represent the finest overall representation to come to market in many decades. The grades are not necessarily the ultra-gems. However, nearly every issue is present in both Mint State and Proof, from 1839-1891. Very few people have ever tried to collect these early Proof Seated coins, as many issues have fewer than half a dozen coins extant. Some of these dates appear so rarely at auction that, when they do, a couple of collectors drive prices to the moon. Such was the case with the 1841 Seated Dollar (NGC Proof 64) which we sold with the Richmond Collection, Part II in November 2004. Despite a CDN Bid value of $23,000 this coin soared to $149,500 because three collectors needed the coin as the last missing piece in their set.

The availability of these sets in the upcoming auctions will be a major catalyst for growth in these series over the next 2-5 years.

To the right you will find some basic analysis for each of the Seated and Barber series discussed here, with of the pros and cons to consider before undertaking the challenge.

Liberty Seated Half Dimes

Our favorite "entry level" Seated set. Very few impossible dates in this set, but still quite a challenge. Try to buy as many dates in Mint State as possible, and the keys in the best grade you can afford/find.

Favorite dates: 1846, 1853-O No Arrows.

Unique coin: 1870-S

Liberty Seated Dimes

A wonderfully challenging set, with some very tough dates, but still nothing out of reach in lower grades. Don't overpay for the overrated 1844 which has been hoarded.

Favorite dates: 1860-O, CC's from 1871-1874, 1885-S

Unique coin: 1873-CC No Arrows

Barber Dimes

A great set for the intermediate collector who seeks a long-term challenge. Completed sets in matched grades will take a year or two to complete. We recommend that collectors seek the two major varieties of the 1893/2 and Micro O as an additional and very relevant parts of the set.

Favorite dates: 1894-O, 1895-O, 1893/2 & 1905-O Micro O
(for varieties)

Major Rarity: 1894-S Branch Mint Proof

Twenty Cent Pieces

A great mini-challenge, especially if you avoid the 1876-CC rarity. Most collectors assemble all issues in Mint State and Proof. The 1876-CC is a great rarity with a great story that transcends the series; it is one of my personal all-time favorite coins.

Favorite dates: 1876-CC, 1877 Proof only

Liberty Seated Quarters

Truly a set for the advanced collector - a challenge which will require patience and resources. Only a handful of complete high grade sets have ever been assembled. Many scarce and rare dates.

Favorite dates: 1842 Small Date (Proof only), 1854-O Huge O,
1860-S, 1870-CC, 1871-CC, 1873-CC No Arrows &
With Arrows, 1891-O (in Mint State)

Major Rarity: 1873-CC No Arrows (5 known)

Unique Coin: 1866 No Motto Proof Only

Barber Quarters

A great set for the intermediate collector who seeks a long-term challenge. Like the Barber Dimes, and Halves, complete sets in matched grades will take a year or two to complete. No major varieties to contend with.

Favorite dates: 1896-S, 1897-S, 1901-S, 1909-O, 1913-S

Liberty Seated Half Dollars

An endeavor for the intermediate-advanced collector who can expect to spend a few years matching a nice set. Scarce dates abound, yet completion is not as difficult as the Quarter or Dime sets.

Favorite dates: 1853-O No Arrows, 1855-S, 1870-CC, 1878-S

Major Rarity: 1853-O No Arrows

Unique Coin: 1866 No Motto Proof Only

Barber Half Dollars

A great set for the intermediate collector who seeks a long-term challenge. Like the Barber Dimes, and Quarters, completed sets in matched grades will take a year or two to complete. We recommend that collectors seek the major varieties 1892-O Micro O as an additional and highly desired piece of the set. It is quite rare in Mint State. The 1904-S Half is one of our all-time favorite value coins in numismatics.

Favorite dates: 1892-O Micro "O", 1904-S, 1907-S

MODERN AMERICAN EAGLES

All Modern Eagles and Sets must contain complete original U.S. Mint packaging.

													GREYSHEET GRADING STANDARDS
		$1 Silver		$5 Gold		$10 Gold		$25 Gold		$50 Gold		Gold Year Set		Numbers are used as shorthand for adjectival grading. The following descriptions are used throughout the CDN to designate the exact quality of Brilliant Uncirculated coins. Grade descriptions do not necessarily apply to modern government issues because they are handled more carefully when minted; therefore, they are all usually high grades.

When it's time to sell...

JMRC will pay you more money for your coins.

John Maben

President & Chief Numismatist
John Maben Rare Coins, Inc.

Grading expertise equals a higher price when selling. The most confident and qualified graders can afford to pay you the highest prices for your coins.

Larger advertising budgets do not translate into higher prices for your coins, and may in fact be a drawback as somebody needs to pay those bills, and that somebody could be you! Some can legitimately claim more experience than their competition, but bear in mind, the length of experience means nothing compared to the depth, quality, and relevance of the experience itself.

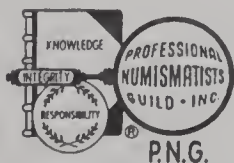

So while there are many coin companies you could go to, many with fine numismatists, there are few who can offer you the consistent high level of grading expertise of a former NGC Grading Finalizer, like John Maben.

Where does this grading expertise come from? From grading and finalizing millions of coins of all types, conditions, and rarities. And not just a "look and go" grade, but at a level of focus and expertise that helped maintain an industry standard for virtually all marketable US coins, for nearly a decade.

When selling, your goal should be to maximize the value of your coins. JMRC stands in a category of its own, uniquely and better qualified to accomplish this goal for our clients through a variety of means.

Find out how JMRC can help you realize higher prices for your coins. Whether you are a dealer, collector, investor, or estate officer, you deserve the very best advice available. Not second, third, or fourth best, but only the very best.

Call, email, fax, or write us today. Visit us on the web or in person by appointment at our Sarasota/Bradenton area Florida offices, or at any major convention.

STELLA!

by Don Ketterling

Say the word "Stella" and depending on who is within earshot, you're likely to evoke a wide array of reactions. At a cocktail party populated by the over fifty set, you may inspire memories of Marlon Brando in his career-making role as Stanley Kowalski howling his wife's name from a New Orleans back alley in, "A Streetcar Named Desire." An English-major might site the dictionary definition: "a star or star-shaped figure," adding that Stella has Latin origins and is contained in the words constellation and stellar, for instance. An artistically savvy trivia buff may point to Frank Stella, a 20th Century American minimalist painter. On a more esoteric level, Stella is also a place-name in Missouri, North Carolina, Nebraska and Puerto Rico with all four boasting a combined population of 1,666 according to the 1990 census ("Alex, I'll take Geography for $1,000!").

But to a dyed-in-the-wool numismatist, Stella conjures up images of one of the premier glamour pieces of the American rare coin landscape; the $4 Gold piece with notorious beginnings has over the years evolved to become one of the "holy grails" of numismatics. Perhaps most remarkably, Miss Stella reached this highest of pedestals despite the fact that she failed to win legislative approval to become an officially-issued coin!

When I was asked to write on this subject for the Coin Dealer Newsletter, I confess to struggling to find an angle for the article. Yes, the Stella has an interesting and mildly amusing story and it is a very popular coin, but the tale can be told in a few paragraphs. Unlike most coin series, there is no potential for date analysis, die-variety cherry-picking, branch Mint rarities, strike characteristics or the like.

Then while researching Coin Dealer Newsletter (CDN) pricing histories I came to realize that the Stella has been an impressive investment vehicle. Not only that, it has been a steady performer; not subject to wild swings as with many "generic" coins or other common coins which are often subject to short-term promotion. This led me to conclude that the Stella, along with perhaps a handful of other "classic" rarities, could be useful as an accurate numismatic market barometer and even an indicator of market direction!

But before I attempt to make the case, I feel compelled to offer the obligatory history (or is that herstory?) about our heroine, Miss Stella.

In the late 1870's, John Adam Kasson, then U.S. Minister to Austria became one of the prime movers behind the creation of the Stella which was supposed to offer an "international" circulating Gold coin to compete on par with European coins such as the Italian 20 Lire, French and Swiss 20 Franc and specifically, the 8 Florin or 20 Franc piece of Austria. As with many stories within a story, the truth involves much in the way of ulterior motives, deliberate confusion and outright deceit related to the creation of these so-called "metric" coins. More significantly to coindom, it is likely the scandal that arose around the creation and distribution of the coin itself that has made the Stella the coveted and famous treasure it is.

Only a few original metric sets containing a $4 Stella along with a $20 or "quintuple Stella" were Minted in December of 1879. In the usual manner, these patterns were to be presented to members of the coinage committee for approval of the new design. Later in 1880, for reasons not entirely clear, another 425 coins were requested by the committee and were struck from the same dies, making them virtually indistinguishable from the "originals," all dated 1879. (Conventional thought is that the restrikes have striations or "adjustment marks" on the obverse portrait and the originals lack them, but there seems to be little contemporary interest in the differentiation).

The restrikes were then distributed to members of Congress and their politically-connected friends at the production cost of $6.50. Newspaper stories began appearing and uproar soon arose among collectors and others that these coins were not available to ordinary citizens. The rumor mill churned and eventually stories arose that the restrikes were ordered by a certain soon-to-be red-faced Congressman who, it was alleged, often gave them to the madams whose bordellos they frequented. Many were later attached to jewelry loops and could be seen adorning the necks of many "ladies of the evening" who plied their trade around Washington, D.C. The dozens of Stellas that can be found today with rim repairs are perhaps mute testimony to the infamous history and origins of this most sought-after American coin.

The cynics among us will point out that the Stella is merely a pattern, and a relatively common one at that, being the second most common Gold pattern behind the "Wire Edge" $10 Indian of 1907. Although it was also made in Aluminum, Copper and "White Metal," it is the Gold specimen that attracts the most attention on bourse floors and auctions despite its being far more common than any of the others.

Two different design Types were created for 1879 and 1880. The "Flowing Hair," obverse was designed by Charles E. Barber and George T. Morgan created the much rarer "Coiled Hair" obverse. Both share the same reverse with the inscription "One Stella" and "400 Cents" within a stylized Star. Of the four Gold dates and Types, the total estimated mintage is just shy of five hundred pieces. A quick check of the population reports of the two major grading services, Professional Coin Grading Service (PCGS) and Numismatic Guaranty Corporation (NGC), reveals that a somewhat surprising 526 of the 1879 Flowing Hair pieces alone have been certified! (This includes all grades and designations such as Cameo and Deep or Ultra-Cameo). Keep in mind that in the world of certified coin population reporting, duplication is the norm rather than the exception. The prime reason, of course, is that often the grading services are not aware that a particular coin has been removed from its certified holder and resubmitted in the hopes that it will be seen in a more forgiving light on the next trip through the grading room. Unless the certified insert displaying the grade and serial number is returned, it is presumed that this certification still exists and it must remain published in the population report. To lessen the anxiety of those concerned, it should be stressed that in the vast majority of cases, the populations are always overstated. As time goes on, this writer believes that the accurate reporting of certified populations will become one of the major issues in the rare coin market especially where the need exists to assess true rarity and particularly as values continue to rise. A coin with a "pop" of six would command a certain price, but if the actual number is two, it could and should be significantly higher.

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both report the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-seen. The coins may be certified or "Raw" (uncertified) but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGHT-UNSEEN market; such Bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/ASK levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

That issue aside, by any standard, 526 of anything does not qualify as "rare" even if the number is overstated by 20%. Nevertheless, the Stella remains one of the most popular of U.S. coins and considering that the finest-knowns of the 1879 Flowing Hair have traded at some healthy levels fast approaching the mid six-figures, it appears that the cynics are being overruled in the marketplace!

A few parallels exist in other areas of U.S. coins, the foremost being the 1856 Flying Eagle Cent which the 2005 issue of, "A Guide Book of United States Coins," by R.S. Yeoman, ("The Redbook") lists with an estimated mintage of 2000 pieces, a figure that has been revised up over the years and, in fact, includes several different varieties of the same pattern Small Cent. Once listed in the "Redbook" a coin becomes a must for the collector and instead of remaining a "common pattern" it becomes a semi-regular issue needed to complete a date set. Others that come to mind are the 1907 Wire-Edge and Rolled-Edge $10 Indians which were never intended for circulation, but are unanimously considered part of a complete set of Indian Eagles.

All debates of "fact" aside about what is rare and what is overrated, this writer would like to humbly suggest that coins of the level of popularity of which the Stella boasts, can perhaps be used as a simple and strategic gauge of the state of the coin market. Consider the following:

In October of 2001 my partner, Bob Higgins, and I began our new venture with a business plan designed to manage the day-to-day trading of a new multi-million dollar wholesale rare coin fund. Due to the monetary value of this fund, we were immediately attracted to the rarest and the finest of American coins. 19th Century Proof Gold was the first thought and included in that esteemed group was the Stella. After over three years of trading many of the most valuable U.S. coins, we have had the opportunity to buy and sell nearly three dozen Stellas in grades that have ranged from Proof 61 through Proof 67. As to be expected, most were the 1879 Flowing Hair variety, but also included were a couple each of the 1879 Coiled Hair and 1880 Flowing Hair varieties, including "finest knowns." All this has served to provide us with some interesting perspectives on price appreciation and more importantly, trends. Let's take a brief look backward.

Due to the tremendous rarity of Proof Gold and the relatively sparse amount of transactions, prices were not reported in the Coin Dealer Newsletter until January, 1982. For those who were not around to experience it, mid-1982 was the bottom of a two-year downturn following the euphoric escalation of the late seventies which peaked in the spring of 1980. By June of 1982 the market hit bottom and the atmosphere on the bourse floors was dismal. In November of 1982, CDN reported a low point of $35,000 as the "Bid" price for a Proof 65 Stella. (What were we thinking?). By the top of the next market cycle in June of 1989, the same coin listed at $100,000. For those courageous enough to take a flyer, this was a tidy 185% profit in less than 7 years, provided they also possessed some competence at grading "raw" coins. In order to further my point let's take a worst-case scenario and say you jumped at the chance to buy this same Gem Stella in June 1989 (market top) because you still thought coins were a good investment.

As the veterans of the late eighties may tell you, the crash of 1989-90 was in many ways more severe than 1980-82. The market of the early nineties sputtered until a small rise occurred relating to the Y2K scare of 1998-99. By October 2001 when our "trading fund" began operating in earnest, the CDN was reporting the Proof 65 Stella at $84,000. "Ouch" you say, a 16% percent loss and you had to hold it 12 years! Before you shout "forget it" let me point out some interesting comparisons from the same period.

The purchase of an MS65 common date St.-Gaudens $20 in June of 1989 would have netted a loss of nearly 80% by October 2001!

How about an MS65 $5 Indian, a coin that most experienced numismatists consider as a legitimate rarity? Your loss would "only" be around 70%! At today's healthier levels your losses would still be 70% and 60% respectively. But what about our Stella?

The current CDN listing for a Proof 65 is $135,000 which, on paper, is a 35% profit for your ill-timed 1989 purchase. I'm not arguing that 35% over 15 years is a great thing, but I am suggesting that in comparison, collecting and investing in high-profile, time-tested classic rarities is a sound and rewarding practice. In bad times the losses are minimal and in strong markets the rewards can be substantial.

Again, going back to October, 2001, (remember, this is a month after "9/11"), a Proof 66 Stella was listed in the Certified Coin Dealer Newsletter (CCDN or Bluesheet) at $103,000 (PCGS) and $97,000 (NGC). Accordingly, we bought a PR66 Stella at $105,000 early that month. Our two most recent purchases for the same grade have been at over double that amount. To underscore the depth of this market, at the recently completed FUN Show in Ft. Lauderdale, a PCGS PR66 brought a respectable $230,000 as lot #30039 in the Heritage "Gold Rush" Collection auction.

Some would argue that a price-doubling within three years might be a warning sign. I would suggest that the Stella is a leading indicator and as such it may be taking a breather while the rest of the market catches up! The key difference between the strong market of today and the previous upward cycles I have witnessed going back to the early sixties, is that it is broadly-based and not driven by one or two key factors.

All my instincts tell me that this market has considerable legs and I'd like to suggest that the savvy collector/investor would do well to seek out the blue chip and classic rarities that have yet to double in the past few years.

Bowers and Merena and the ANA Present: The First National Auction Appearance of Gold Coins from the Historic Civil War Era Shipwreck, the S.S. Republic

On October 25, 1865, the S.S. Republic sank to the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean in a hurricane off the coast of Savannah, Georgia. The paddlewheel steamship's passengers, who were en route from New York to New Orleans, were able to escape the dying ship. Most of the ship's cargo, however, sank in about 500 meters of water. Research indicates that on board the ship at that time, among other treasures, was $400,000 in specie (1865 face value) meant to fuel New Orleans' postwar economy.

Odyssey Marine Exploration, Inc. of Tampa, Florida discovered the wreck of the S.S. Republic.

Excavation of the site commenced in 2003, and to date over $75 million worth of gold and silver coins have been recovered. The shipwreck has been the subject of countless news stories, a one-hour National Geographic Ultimate Explorer episode, and a one-hour National Geographic Special entitled "Civil War Gold" broadcast on PBS. The S.S. Republic was also featured in the September issue of "National Geographic Magazine."

Bowers and Merena, as the Official Auctioneer of the 2005 ANA National Money Show, is proud to present some of the finest Eagles and Double Eagles excavated from the S.S. Republic shipwreck to date. Our offering of these coins represents the first national auction appearance of gold coins from the treasure of this steamship. The coins, all of which have been expertly preserved, graded, and encapsulated by NGC, have been hand-selected by Odyssey's Numismatic Marketing Strategist John Albanese for their eye appeal and technical quality.

As a participant in Bowers and Merena's Official 2005 ANA National Money Show Auction, you can be a part of this historic event. The sale is scheduled for April 8-10, 2005 in Kansas City, Missouri.

To find out more about the S.S. Republic highlights pictured here, contact Bowers and Merena President Steve Deeds, Debbie McDonald, or Jeff Ambio today at 800-458-4646. Consignments are being accepted through February 21, 2005.

Grade descriptions do not necessarily apply to modern government issues because they are handled more carefully when minted; therefore, they are all usually high grades.

May be the worst possible example, shows no wear or damage. Will be bagmarked and/or weakly struck	MS63-Choice BU: Brilliant Unc. (may exhibit some toning, but it should not be so dark as to hide any problems); will have minor bagmarks and may show weakness of strike. Above average coins	MS64-Distinct BU: Far and away nicer than MS63, yet a near miss MS65. Few Contact marks in field, only minor marks on main devices. Full strike, with eye-appeal. Attractive toning permissible.	MS67-Superb: Will be 100% fully struck and virtually perfect in all other respects. Prices of such seldom encountered specimens are based upon the merits of each coin. They range from very scarce to unknown according to date.	Deep Mirror Prooflike: Will exhibit the same characteristics as the corresponding Mint State Morgan, but with the additional feature of deep mirror surfaces on both sides.	*Please Note: This page alternates weekly with Page 3A which contains BU and Proof Rolls.

Small Change. Big Rewards.

The American Numismatic Association welcomes numismatists of all ages, beginners and experts alike. The ANA can provide you with the knowledge you need to be a confident collector.

8 GREAT REASONS TO JOIN TODAY!

1 12 ISSUES OF NUMISMATIST.

Your ANA membership includes a subscription to Numismatist — the voice of the coin collecting hobby since 1891. Every month, you will receive a new issue filled with dazzling, full-color illustrations, tips on what and how to collect, columns by the hobby's most respected numismatists and much more.

2 BORROW THE BOOK BEFORE YOU BUY THE COIN.

The Dwight N. Manley Numismatic Library allows you to expand your horizons by borrowing any of 50,000 books, videos and slide programs. Or let us help you with your research.

3 LEARN WHAT THE EXPERTS KNOW!

The ANA is the largest, educational numismatic organization in the world. Members can participate in seminars, home-study courses and Numismatic Theatre presentations.

4 SAVE MONEY.

The MoneyMarket has the latest and best in books and supplies, available at a substantial member discount. And new members get a coupon for an additional 10% off Littleton Coin Supplies.

5 INSURANCE.

Insure your collection for as little as 50 cents per $100 of value. Your homeowners' policy can't match the rates or the coverage.

6 GRADING AND CONSERVATION SERVICES.

Avoid the middleman — ANA members can submit coins directly to Numismatic Guaranty Corporation (NGC) for grading and Numismatic Conservation Services (NCS) for conservation.

7 ANA CONVENTIONS: THE HIGHLIGHT OF THE NUMISMATIC YEAR.

Shop the bourse, attend Numismatic Theatre presentations and club meetings, and enjoy the hobby's largest collection of educational exhibits. The National Money Show™ (every spring) and the World's Fair of Money® (late summer) create opportunities for numismatists across the country to buy, sell, meet and learn with the best.

8 MEDIATION SERVICES.

Mediation for numismatic disputes is available through the ANA.

MERCURY DIMES A DOZEN YEARS LATER

Part One

by David W. Lange

The Mercury Dime is, by any measure, a beautiful coin. Part of the renaissance in American coin design that began in 1907 and lasted through 1921 (longer if one includes the splendid commemoratives of the 1920s and '30s), the Mercury Dime was one of two new coins created in 1916 by German-American sculptor Adolph Alexander Weinman. His handsome Half Dollar debuted that same year, both designs having been selected by Treasury Secretary William G. McAdoo and Mint Director Robert W. Woolley from among the several submitted by Weinman, Hermon A. MacNeil and Albin Polasek. Weinman's designs remained in production through the mid-1940s, and they were seen in circulation as late as the 1960s. Today, however, they are known only to coin enthusiasts. Both series have a timeless appeal and have long been used as yardsticks to measure the overall health of the United States coin market.

The first edition of my book, "The Complete Guide to Mercury Dimes", was published in 1993. A lot of Mercury Dime collections, both great and modest, have been assembled and sold in the dozen years since that time. Now that a new edition of the book is about to be published, it seems a very good time to see where this popular series stands today in comparison to 1993.

First off, I want to look at what developments have occurred since 1993 that have affected the Mercury Dime series. Some things remain the same—certified grading dominated the market in 1993, and it still does today to an even greater extent. A few new grading companies have appeared during the past dozen years, but the major players are still NGC and PCGS, at least in terms of prices realized for their product. Certified grading was still relatively new then, while now it has matured. There remained some reason to be skeptical of the certified population data in 1993, since it was still not unusual to encounter original rolls of Mint State Mercury Dimes. The certification of these coins offered the potential to radically affect the existing population data, which at that time was still skewed in favor of the more valuable issues in the series. Original rolls are seldom encountered today, as most have already been broken-up to be submitted to the grading services. Those that do turn up are likely to include only the more common issues from the late 1930s through 1945.

In 1993 it was not very cost effective to have the common dates certified in large numbers. Typically, dealers would look carefully through their stock of common date Mercury Dimes to select only the nicest pieces for certification. Prices for common MS65 coins had dropped somewhat from the halcyon, pre-certification days of the late 1970s, so only those Dimes having outstanding luster and surfaces and/or exceptional toning would make the cut. It was almost a given that common date Mercury Dimes lacking Full Bands would not be submitted unless they were really nice. Collectors, on the other hand, would have their coins submitted by dealers in a less selective fashion, which probably accounts for the relatively small number of lower grades that were then, and remain today, a part of the overall certified population. In 1993 only dealers were permitted to submit coins to the major grading services, but in 2005 collectors may purchase memberships that permit them to submit coins directly without going through dealers.

While prices for common date Mercury Dimes have shown only modest gains since 1993 in the popular grades of MS64 and MS65, the number of coins certified at these levels has risen considerably. This is a little less true of MS64 than of MS65, the latter grade showing dramatic population growth both with and without Full Bands. This has occurred despite price advances that reflect little more than the effect of 12 years inflation. What happened to swell these numbers?

I believe the answer lies in the growing utilization of bulk submissions to the grading services, also known as "pre-screens." When submitted in lots of 100 or more coins of the same type, Mercury Dimes may now be certified for less than $10 in the grades of MS65 or MS65FB. This service is widely used by dealers having quantities of Mercury Dimes. As long as a certain percentage of their submission achieves their specified minimum grade, they pay only for those coins which are holdered. The coins that don't make the cut are returned to the submitting dealer uncertified and find their way back into the marketplace as raw dimes. While this service existed in 1993, it was then confined almost exclusively to Silver Dollars and, perhaps, Gold coins. Still available only to dealers, it has made the certification of inexpensive coins a practical reality.

A typical example of how many more certified Mercury Dimes there are now as compared to 1993 may be found by looking at the 1943(P) Dime. In February of 1993 the combined Mint State population of NGC and PCGS coins was 2,784 pieces. By January of 2005 that number had grown to 4,542 coins, an increase of 63%. Philadelphia Mint Dimes of the 1940s are notorious for being difficult to find with Full Bands, but the percentage of Full Band coins within the overall number of certified 1943(P) Dimes has grown from 46% in 1993 to 61% in 2005. This likely reflects the selectivity employed in the pre-screen process widely used for certifying Mercury Dimes today.

Another change in the Mercury Dime market has been the recent explosive growth of the registry phenomenon. This has been made possible by the movement of the Internet from a little known tool for academics and computer geeks to a mainstream player in both our business and personal lives. Most people who have computers also have some access to the Internet, and it was just a matter of time before the coin business found a way to capitalize on this development. Both PCGS and NGC maintain online certified coin registries at their websites. They work in a similar manner, the only major difference being that PCGS limits participation to its own product, while the NGC registry accepts both its own coins and those certified by PCGS. At this time, neither raw coins nor those certified by other grading services are accepted in these registries.

Online certified registries were entirely unknown in 1993, but today they are a major driving force behind the assembling of competitive coin collections. In fact, it was not so long ago that it seemed the assembling of complete date and mint sets was becoming a thing of the past. As many coin buyers switched from traditional albums to certified slabs, they were inclined to just select desirable pieces at random. The notion of completeness, so important to maintaining continuity in the coin market, has been given new life by the online certified registries. Collectors once again are viewing Mercury Dimes not just as stand-alone items, but rather as individual pieces that possess greater appeal when assembled as a whole.

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both report the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight seen. The coins may be certified or "Raw" (uncertified) but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGHT-UNSEEN market such Bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid, but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

While only the top three or four registered collections in each category get into the spotlight, behind these are dozens or even hundreds of lesser collections that are the pride and joy of their owners. More importantly for the dealer, registries have created a renewed demand for certified coins across a wide spectrum of grades. As participants post their collections online, they are immediately made aware of the strengths and weaknesses of their own sets as compared to those already posted. Since the scores for each coin in each grade are made available to users, it is possible for them to predict the effect that upgrading each coin will have on their collection's status. This creates the urge for upgrading, a condition that may not abate until the owner reaches that coveted number one slot. Most Mercury Dimes are available over a wide range of Mint State grades, so the need of a collector to upgrade is compatible with the ability of the dealer to meet this need.

Another new development to grow out of the registry phenomenon is one that affects the sale of such registered coins when they come to auction. It used to be that the term "pedigree" meant names such as Eliasberg or Garrett, but added to these are now the registry pedigrees. It is very common for outstanding sets to be promoted for sale on the basis of their registry standing. This kind of marketing has been particularly noticeable in the case of important Mercury Dime collections that have come to auction in the past five years. Coins carrying these pedigrees on their grading labels have assumed a new status that may translate into higher prices.

By the way, some of the finest registered collections of Mercury Dimes to appear in the past few years have been assembled by dealers. Of course, that may have happened even without the added appeal of registries, but these collections would have been less well known to potential buyers when the inevitable time to sell came about. Registries provide a wealth of free advertising long in advance of any sale.

Since I've brought up the subject of the Internet, it should be mentioned how much of an impact this has had on the retail trading of Mercury Dimes. Some coin dealers have been conservative in their business practices and slow to adapt to this new avenue of opportunity. If you've become adept at creating price listings and have an extensive mailing list of customers, it may take awhile to realize that sending out hardcopy catalogs to everyone on that mailing list is not as effective as it once was. Newer, and particularly younger, customers want immediate access to your inventory and your latest purchases. Balanced against this is the need of older customers, who may not have Internet access, to receive this information through traditional means such as hardcopy price lists and advertisements in the trade papers and magazines. The most effective businesses seem to be the ones pursuing both avenues, though time will likely diminish the number of serious collectors who are not doing their shopping at dealers' websites or at community trading sites such as ebay.

To show what an effect this transformation has had, let me cite a specific example from my book. When the first edition came out in 1993, I applied a rarity scale to each date and mint combination that was based on its frequency of appearances at coin shows in each respective grade. In the new book this rarity system has been eliminated entirely, because the number of collectors making the bulk of their purchases in person, at coin shows, has dropped so drastically in 12 years. While dealers still depend heavily on shows to rebuild their inventories and to gauge the overall condition of the market, collectors are doing evermore of their coin shopping online from their homes. Though this is quite effective for collectors as a means of simply acquiring coins, I believe they are missing out on the grading education that can be achieved only by comparing large numbers of coins at shows. Perhaps I'm just becoming nostalgic, but I would still like to see collectors traveling to major coin shows, whether or not their primary purpose in doing so is to make purchases.

In Part Two of this study, I will look at how each coin in the Mercury Dime series has fared over the past dozen years in the grades of MS64 and MS65, both with and without Full Bands. Before closing this installment, however, permit me to make a few general observations about the series as a whole. One fact that sticks out when comparing price performances since 1993 is that the truly rare coins in the series either held their value or advanced significantly. Some of the semi-key coins did not do so well. As the number of examples certified in similar grades rose, it may have revealed these dates to be more available than was generally believed. Several issues from the short set of 1934-45 performed extremely well, finally achieving their due after many years of being lumped together with the common dates. Speaking of common dates, these actually showed some satisfying gains in MS65 and MS65FB. As noted above, most of this increase reflected the effects of inflation, but that's still better than the losses suffered by more highly touted, semi-key issues. Overall, however, the series has done well, its collector base continuing to grow as more and more buyers discover the enduring appeal of Adolph Weinman's beautiful design.

The following descriptions are used throughout the CDN to designate the exact quality of Brilliant Uncirculated coins. Grade descriptions do not necessarily apply to modern government issues because they are handled more carefully when minted; therefore, they are all usually high grades.

Small Change. Big Rewards.

The American Numismatic Association welcomes numismatists of all ages, beginners and experts alike. The ANA can provide you with the knowledge you need to be a confident collector.

8 GREAT REASONS TO JOIN TODAY!

12 ISSUES OF NUMISMATIST.

Your ANA membership includes a subscription to Numismatist — the voice of the coin collecting hobby since 1891. Every month, you will receive a new issue filled with dazzling, full-color illustrations, tips on what and how to collect, columns by the hobby's most respected numismatists and much more.

BORROW THE BOOK BEFORE YOU BUY THE COIN.

The Dwight N. Manley Numismatic Library allows you to expand your horizons by borrowing any of 50,000 books, videos and slide programs. Or let us help you with your research.

LEARN WHAT THE EXPERTS KNOW!

The ANA is the largest, educational numismatic organization in the world. Members can participate in seminars, home-study courses and Numismatic Theatre presentations.

SAVE MONEY.

The MoneyMarket has the latest and best in books and supplies, available at a substantial member discount. And new members get a coupon for an additional 10% off Littleton Coin Supplies.

INSURANCE.

Insure your collection for as little as 50 cents per $100 of value. Your homeowners' policy can't match the rates or the coverage.

GRADING AND CONSERVATION SERVICES.

Avoid the middleman — ANA members can submit coins directly to Numismatic Guaranty Corporation (NGC) for grading and Numismatic Conservation Services (NCS) for conservation.

ANA CONVENTIONS: THE HIGHLIGHT OF THE NUMISMATIC YEAR.

Shop the bourse, attend Numismatic Theatre presentations and club meetings, and enjoy the hobby's largest collection of educational exhibits. The National Money Show™ (every spring) and the World's Fair of Money® (late summer) create opportunities for numismatists across the country to buy, sell, meet and learn with the best.

MEDIATION SERVICES.

Mediation for numismatic disputes is available through the ANA.

MERCURY DIMES

A DOZEN YEARS LATER

Part Two

by David W. Lange

They're not making Mercury Dimes anymore, so a complete collection of business strikes still comprises the same 77 Date/Mint combinations, as well as two popular overdates that are so much in the mainstream of collecting that they may be considered essential to the set. To these coins may be added the seven Proofs of 1936-42 inclusively.

A comprehensive study of the Mercury Dime series should encompass all collectable grades, but in order to keep this article to a manageable size I will limit my focus to the popular and widely traded grades of MS64 and MS65. These grades have been priced in the Coin Dealer Newsletter throughout the period of study, so their Bid prices provide a constant element for comparison purposes.

While some price advances have occurred within the popular MS64 and MS65 grades, particularly for the scarce dates having Full Bands, it's actually remarkable that these grades have experienced relatively stable values overall. While this may seem disappointing to the more investment minded individuals, to the collector (and to the dealer who supplies the collector market) it means that the Mercury Dime series remains affordable to a broad range of coin buyers. This is a good thing for any coin series, as its long term health is dependent on a large number of players having a stake in the game.

The 1916(P) Dime was widely saved as the first of its Type encountered by most Americans of the time. Thus, it has always been readily available in Mint State condition. Only in MS65FB did this issue show any advance in Bid value, the lesser grades actually declining. This may be due in part to the growing popularity of the MS66 and MS66FB grades over the past dozen years. Relatively few of these higher grade coins had been certified in 1993, and the expansion of the higher grade population has had a slight depressing effect on the MS64 and MS64FB grades, a phenomenon that is visible in varying degrees with most issues in the Mercury Dime series.

As the undisputed key to this popular series, the 1916-D Dime never seems to decline in value at any grade. Indeed, strong advances have been recorded for this issue since 1993, with the value of MS64FB and MS65FB coins nearly tripling in that time. This trend is likely to continue, though at what rate is impossible to predict.

1916-S Dimes are relatively common as compared to other 'S' Mint issues of the time, due to that same first-year-of-issue hoarding. In the 1930s this date was priced lower than its 'P' Mint counterpart, but it is now known to be the tougher of the two, especially in high grades. Except in MS65FB, this issue fared poorly over the past dozen years, rising slightly in MS64FB, but not enough when adjusted for inflation.

1917(P) Dimes have always been fairly common, due to their generous mintage, and it is only in MS65FB that this date has fared well. Losses in MS64 and MS65, with just a modest gain in MS64FB, reinforces the old maxim that one should always buy the best that his or her budget allows.

The 1917-D Dime has always been scarce, as compared to most other dates from the teens, yet it did not perform well over the past dozen years. Perhaps its rarity was too well understood in 1993, and there was little room left to advance. Losses in three of the grades studied, along with just a modest gain in MS65FB, seem an injustice to this very scarce issue.

1917-S Dimes simply got hammered during the dozen years under study. To this writer, such losses are a little easier to accept than those suffered by 1917-D, as its 'S' Mint cousin is clearly more available across all grades, including the circulated ones.

Long lumped together with other "common" Philadelphia Mint Dimes, the 1918(P) really broke free after 1993. Though it lost ground in MS64 and barely gained in MS65, this date is now recognized as being quite scarce with Full Bands. The value of a MS65FB has nearly doubled in those dozen years.

The desirability of Full Bands in those dates seldom found with this feature is clearly illustrated by the 1918-D Dime. Perhaps overrated in simple Mint State, both MS64 and MS65 registered losses, but their Full-Band counterparts really took off. An MS65FB example of this date is now worth nearly three times what it was in 1993.

1918-S Dimes suffered losses in three of the four grades studied, with MS65FB enjoying only a moderate gain. While additional examples have been certified with Full Bands in the intervening years, this issue remains quite scarce in MSFB grades, so its weak performance is something of a mystery.

I can remember a time, 30 years ago, when all 'P' Mint Mercury Dimes, with the exception of 1921, were treated as common. The 1919(P) Dime is now clearly recognized as scarce at the very least, with average gains since 1993 in three of the four grades studied. While not especially rare with Full Bands, it is an elusive coin overall, and this fact is reflected in its mostly satisfying performance.

The 1919-D Dime has always been recognized as a semi-key within this popular series. With the ever-growing demand for Full-Band coins, however, the values for examples lacking this desirable feature have actually dropped. Conversely, the values recorded for Full-Band 1919-D Dimes have skyrocketed. In MS64FB, this issue is now worth nearly four times what it was in 1993, while the value of a MS65FB piece is more than six times what it was then!

This pattern is repeated with 1919-S, though on a somewhat less dramatic scale. Flat-band coins have sagged a bit, while Full-Band Dimes are way up. The Bid value of a MS65FB 1919-S Dime is three times what it was in 1993.

The 1920(P) Dime seems to have mostly slept through the past dozen years, with a modest advance in MS65FB and very little activity in the lesser grades. Though scarcer than most of the other 'P' Mint Dimes from the twenties, average quality Mint State pieces are generally available.

As with most of the semi-key issues in the Mercury series, the 1920-D Dime has shown moderate advances in the grades of MS64FB and MS65FB, while actually declining in Mint State grades lacking Full Bands. Is this a fair evaluation, or have we become too fixated on the letters 'FB'? I'll have more to say on this matter concerning the 1921(P) Dimes.

1920-S Dimes are scarce in any grade of Mint State, so they have fared a little better than other semi-key dates. Declining only in MS64, the remaining three grades under study have all advanced in value. The gains in MS64FB and MS65FB are dramatic, in both instances the values nearly doubling since 1993.

And now, one of the most puzzling issues in this series: 1921(P). With its low mintage, this date is consistently popular in all grades from "hole filler" through gem Mint State. Price advances since 1993, however, have been less than stellar in the four grades studied. Modest gains were recorded for MS64 and MS65, with the greatest advance occurring at the MS64FB level. Coins grading MS65FB rose in value only slightly, a situation that seems to be out of step with the rest of the series. The fact of the matter is that 1921(P) are at least as common with Full Bands as without, this seeming to be the norm for this date. In contrast, the peripheral legends and the date are often indistinct, so a smart buyer will seek a coin that is well struck overall and will not rely solely on the FB designation as a determiner of quality. This fact is much better understood today than it was in 1993, accounting for the narrow price separation between MS and MSFB for this date.

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet) both report the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight seen. The coins may be certified or 'Raw' (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current grading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGHT-UNSEEN market, such Bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a 'Raw' coin may be higher or lower than the current price for a certified coin. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid, but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

1921-D Dimes are a different story, with MSFB examples being quite a bit scarcer than their flat-band counterparts. Though the values for MS64 and MS65 pieces are still hovering near their 1993 levels, both MS64FB and MS65FB coins have logged respectable advances. Still, top-grade 1921-D Dimes seem a little underpriced in comparison to their more common 1921(P) cousins.

The 1923(P) Dime is the first of the high-mintage issues following the recession of 1921-22, and examples are plentiful in Mint State. Indeed, only in MS65FB has their been much advancement, the remaining grades seemingly stuck near their 1993 levels.

1923-S Dimes are very scarce in Mint State, yet this date repeated a familiar pattern: MS64 and MS65 values declined, while MS64FB and MS65FB coins have nearly doubled in value. Certainly, the former have not become more common. They are simply less highly sought by advanced collectors, many of whom are competing in registries. As noted in last month's installment, the importance of registry competition cannot be overstated.

The 1924(P) Dime has proved to be very stable over the years, with MS65FB remaining at the same value, while the lesser grades changed very little. This represents an actual loss in terms of constant dollars, but it shows that market perception of this issue has not changed much.

1924-D Mercury Dimes were overvalued in 1993, a fact which has been rectified since then. Significant drops in Bid prices occurred in all four grades, even MS65FB plummeting to less than half its former value.

The 1924-S issue took big hits in MS64 and MS65, yet Full-Band coins posted impressive gains. In MS64FB, this date rose 30% in value, while the figure for MS65FB more than doubled.

In 1993 the 1925(P) Dime was already recognized as being more scarce than most of its Philadelphia Mint brothers from that decade. As a result, there was little room for advancement for the flat-band examples, though the MS64FB Bid rose some 60%, and the MS65FB Bid more than doubled. As always in numismatics, quality is everything.

Like 1921(P), the 1925-D Dime is notorious for being poorly struck at the peripheries. While Full-Band examples are still quite scarce, the overall strike quality remains a significant issue. Both MS64FB and MS65FB Bids have declined, while MS64 rose substantially and MS65 held steady.

1925-S Dimes are also among the most poorly struck issues in this series, most coins having been Minted from worn and indistinct dies. Surprisingly, little price movement has occurred with this date, the MS65 Bid declining sharply, while the other figures changed very little or not at all.

The Philadelphia Mint Dimes of 1926(P) through 1928(P) are somewhat similar in overall rarity, with their relative values across-the-board declining with each successive date. As one might expect, relatively little movement has occurred with these issues, except for moderate advances in MS64FB and MS65FB.

Solid gains were shown by 1926-D, with the exception of a slight decline in MS65. This date was once relatively common in Mint State, judging by advertisements from the 1930s and '40s, but any rolls that may have existed then have since been broken-up for the singles market.

The key-date 1926-S Dime will never be considered anything but very scarce in Mint State condition, yet the emphasis on registry-quality coins has caught up with it, too. Both the MS64 and MS65 Bids have lagged a bit since 1993, while the MS64FB and MS65FB values have risen some 35-40%.

A similar pattern is seen for 1927-D. Touted for decades as a rarity in Mint State, its flat band values have likewise declined, while the Full Band values have advanced respectably. The MS65FB Bid has nearly doubled in a dozen years.

The 1927-S Dime has truly been a winner in the years since 1993, registering gains in all four grades. Though the increase for MS64 and MS65 has been only moderate, this alone puts it ahead of most other dates, which showed declines. The value for MS64FB examples more than doubled, while the MS65FB Bid rose more than 60%.

Only modest gains were recorded for 1928-D Dimes in MS64FB and MS65FB, while flat-band examples held steady in MS64 and actually declined in MS65. Again, this is fairly consistent for the many dates that are neither common nor rare. A similar performance for 1928-S saw flat-band Bids decline, while MS64FB and MS65FB values advanced just under 30%.

Next month: 1929 through 1945 and the Proofs of 1936 through 1942

In December 1970 Stack's had the pleasure of offering The Alto Collection of Gold, Silver and Copper coins. It was a major collection of United States coins formed in the 1920s through the early 1950s. Many of the coins came from important sales, including B. Max Mehl, J.C. Morganthau, Barney Bluestone, John Zug and Wayte Raymond. That original Alto sale has since been considered a famous "pedigree" sale. Two decades later, Stack's offered the Alto II Collection over two sales in October and December of 1991. These sales featured U.S. and World coins which had been handed down to family members from the original old-time collection – coins the family decided to sell together in another major offering to the public.

It is in this storied tradition – nearly 35 years after Alto I and more than a decade since Alto II – that we at Superior welcome the chance to sell The Alto Collection Part III. In keeping with history, another generation of family members has once again come together to offer more outstanding United States coinage, many of which have not seen the light of day for well over a half century. We at Superior are very honored and grateful to have been asked by the present families to sell these spectacular rare coins at public auction. We believe these coins to be a substantial numismatic find and a unique opportunity to acquire some great and attractive specimens for your collection. These coins and many others are all found in original envelopes from the 1920s through the 1960s which will be certified prior to sale!

Stack's sold the first two parts of The Alto Collection in 1970 and 1991. Superior will sell this third major offering from the Alto families in its April and May coin auctions.

MERCURY DIMES

A DOZEN YEARS LATER

Part Three

by David W. Lange

Since Part One of this article appeared in March, I've received a number of inquiries about the new edition of my book, "The Complete Guide To Mercury Dimes". This is being published by DLRC Press and is expected by the end of spring.

This concluding installment of my look at the Mercury Dime series and how Bid values for the grades of MS64, MS64FB, MS65 and MS65FB have changed since the first edition of my book was published in 1993 continues with the Dimes of 1929. The 1929(P) Dime has suffered losses in its MS64 Bid values since 1993, both with and without Full Bands. In grades MS65 and MS65FB this issue has advanced, though only modestly for coins lacking Full Bands. This seems to further the notion that collectors are becoming evermore quality conscious, particularly as they compete in the online NGC and PCGS registries.

1929-D Dimes are among the most available branch-Mint issues of the 1920s in Mint State condition. This date has retreated dramatically in value without Full Bands, yet MS64FB and MS65FB coins have both advanced, the latter quite a bit in terms of percentage gain.

The same scenario is repeated for 1929-S, with only Full Band coins showing any gains and the flat band coins losing ground. MS65FB examples have risen in Bid value 60% since 1993, again emphasizing the importance of quality in today's coin market.

At the risk of becoming repetitive, the 1930(P) Dime is another entry that has slid in MS64 and MS64FB, while gaining ground in the MS65 and MS65FB grades. Also consistent with previous examples is that the biggest gain is at the MS65FB level, the 2005 Bid value for this issue being nearly double what it was in 1993.

1930-S has always been a favorite date of mine in this series, and the coin market evidently agrees. Advances are recorded in all four grades under study. While the gains for Full Band coins are to be expected after a dozen years, the fact that examples lacking this feature have likewise been Bid to higher levels recognizes the scarcity of this low-mintage issue.

Speaking of low mintages, the Dimes dated 1931 from all three Mints are favorites on this count, and they have fared better over the span of grades than most of the other pre-1934 issues. 1931(P) retreated only slightly in MS64 and MS65, while the MS64FB and MS65FB Bid values both nearly doubled.

The 1931-D Dime reveals only slight movement during these dozen years, perhaps a belated recognition that this issue is not as rare in Mint State as its very low mintage suggests. Along with 1929-D it was among the Mercury Dimes most often advertised for sale in Mint State during the 1930s, indicating that hoards existed at that time.

1931-S Dimes lacking Full Bands remained fairly static during this time period, but the values for MS64FB and MS65FB advanced dramatically. This issue has always been rare with Full Bands, and it seems to have taken the market awhile to catch up to this truth. The MS64FB Bid nearly quadrupled, while in MS65FB this issue is worth more than twice what it was in 1993.

The Mercury Dimes dated 1934 and later seem to have taken a divergent path from most of the earlier issues in that they have either held steady or, in most instances, recorded advances in Bid values across all four grades under study. This is in marked contrast to the pre-1934 issues, which have almost universally suffered in value for coins lacking Full Bands. What should we make of this? I suspect that the lower baseline values for these coins gave them greater room to grow. Also, the emerging popularity of the short set of 1941-45 and the "long" short set of 1934-45 have led to more widespread interest in collecting these years. It seems that a lot of collectors may have been priced out of the complete 1916-45 set in Mint State condition or have simply decided that it would take more time and money than they want to devote. As mentioned previously, the influence of registry set collecting cannot be overstated, as many collectors opt to compete only in the short set categories.

The 1934(P) and 1934-D Dimes have advanced in Bid values across all four grades. As expected, the most noticeable gains are for Full Band coins, with 1934(P) tripling in MS65FB and 1934-D more than doubling in MS64FB.

1935(P) is the first truly common coin in this series. Not surprisingly, the only gain recorded is in MS65FB where it more than doubled in Bid price.

The 1935-D Dimes likewise rose across-the-board, with MS64FB revealing the greatest gain at more than triple its 1993 Bid. This is another favorite issue of mine, and it's a bit disappointing that the MS65FB Bid rose as little as it did. It does seem to have been a bit high in 1993, so there was clearly less room to grow.

1935-S Dimes are relatively common in Mint State, and this is reflected in the lackluster gains for flat-band coins. This date, however, is very scarce with Full Bands, and both MS64FB and MS65FB values exploded during these dozen years. I suspect that in time this issue will surpass 1935-D in MS65FB.

The 1936(P) and 1937(P) Dimes are quite similar in overall rarity, which is to say they are relatively common in the four grades under study. The only significant price advance has been for 1936(P) in MS65FB.

1936-D followed the typical pattern of these later dates, advancing modestly in MS64 and MS65, while showing impressive gains in MS64FB and MS65FB. I'm skeptical that these new FB values are justified, as Denver Mint coins of this period are typically well struck. Only time will tell.

The performance of the 1936-S Dime has been a bit disappointing when compared against that of its immediate neighbors. A Bid value of just $68 for MS65FB seems improbable to me, especially when viewed against the $250 Bid for 1936-D in the same grade. Again, time will tell.

1937-D Dimes have always been relatively common and typically are well struck. Thus, it comes as no surprise that only moderate gains have occurred, even for MS65FB.

Like 1935-S, the 1937-S Dime is now recognized for the rarity it is with Full Bands. Despite large numbers of surviving Mint State examples, only a portion of these have Full Bands, and this is reflected in the fact that MS64FB and MS65FB Bids have roughly doubled since 1993.

As the quality of coins being produced by the Denver Mint rose during the late 1930s and into the 1940s, the quality of their Philadelphia Mint cousins rapidly declined. This is seen in the relatively high Bid value of $60 for 1938(P) in MS65FB, a coin that novice collectors would expect to be very common. Otherwise, this issue is unremarkable.

1938-D Dimes are among the most well made in this series, often being found with Full Bands. While this translates into lackluster price performance over the past dozen years, this issue remains a favorite with collectors for its consistent beauty.

The 1938-S Dime, long assumed to be common in any grade, is now recognized as being scarce in gem, Full Band condition. Not especially rare as a Full Band coin in average Mint State condition, nor as a gem lacking Full Bands, it is instead the combination of high numeric grade and Full Bands that makes for a very scarce and desirable coin. This is reflected in the dramatic price increase for MS65FB examples.

Despite large numbers of surviving Mint State coins the Philadelphia Mint Dimes of 1939 through 1945 are generally scarce with Full Bands, the last date in this series being a story unto itself. While the total number of Full Band coins seems sufficient to meet the demand, it is but a small percentage of the overall Mint State population. For the most part these coins have all doubled or nearly so in MS65FB since 1993. To a lesser extent the story is the same for MS64FB coins from the Philadelphia Mint. Since they have followed such a similar track, I will comment on individual 'P' Mint issues of 1939-45 only where they stand out from the crowd.

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both report the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight seen. The coins may be certified or "Raw" (uncertified) but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGINT-UNSEEN market; such Bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid, but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

The 1939(P) Dime emerged some years ago as a scarce issue with Full Bands. Already a premium coin in 1993, it has more than doubled to $140 Bid in MS65FB.

1939-D is the quintessential Type coin for this popular design. You'll have to go out of your way to find an unattractive example, as they seem to all be fully struck and beautifully lustrous. Not surprisingly, there has been very little price movement for this common issue.

The 1939-S Dime was recognized decades ago as a rarity with Full Bands, as well as having a somewhat low Mint State population for an issue that should have been saved in large quantities by collectors of that time. While little has happened with flat-band coins since 1993, this entry has posted impressive gains in MS64FB and MS65FB.

1940-D and 1940-S were long treated as two of a kind, but the scarcer 'S' Mint Dime has finally pulled ahead of its Colorado cousin in MS64FB and MS65FB. Denver Mint Dimes from 1937 through 1945 are simply not scarce with Full Bands, while most San Francisco coins are somewhat elusive.

1941-D and 1941-S have posted only modest gains since 1993, as evermore collectors focus on coins grading MS66 and higher. 1941-S is far the scarcer of the two with Full Bands, though this relatively rarity is only hinted at by their slim price differential.

It should come as no surprise that the 1942/1(P) overdate has advanced dramatically in value across all grades. Key-date coins always lead the pack in this respect, and collectors attempting to complete a series should buy these issues at their first opportunity, before being priced out of the market. This may already have happened for some, with MS64FB and MS65 Bids just about doubling, while the MS65FB Bid is four times what it was in 1993!

The 1942-D is a common coin in gem condition, even with Full Bands, and there's little to note about its performance since 1993. Ditto for its Denver Mint pals from 1943 through 1945.

The 1942/1-D overdate, though rarer in all grades than its Philadelphia Mint cousin, is also a less obvious and less publicized variety. Thus, it lags behind in current values and in percentage increase since 1993. Still, its gains are impressive in the overall context of the Mercury Dime series, proving once again that rare coins always lead the pack.

1942-S has exploded in value in MS65FB, nearly tripling since 1993. While a scarce issue in this grade, I believe that the current Bid value is a bit overheated with respect to other 'S' Mint Dimes from the 1940s.

The 1943-S, 1944-S and 1945-S Dimes are all very common issues in anything less than MS65FB, so it's not surprising that this grade alone, of the four under study, has shown significant increases. All three dates rose some 60%-100% in MS65FB Bid. The 1945-S Micro S, once thought to be a rarity, has long since settled down to its role as a popular and widely collectable variety. Only in MS65FB and higher grades have there been significant Bid increases, and this is a true reflection of its relative rarity. Flat band examples of this variety are often seen in some extraordinarily high grades.

The 1945(P) Dime having Full Bands was already a legendary rarity when I first began collecting this series in Mint State in 1976. Time has only increased its fame as well as its value. The MS64FB Bid has grown some sixfold since 1993, while MS65FB examples are worth three times as much as they were then.

And now, a few words about the Proofs. While these may easily form the subject of an article all their own, I'll take a brief look at them here. All dates 1936-42 have advanced in PF64 and PF65, though mostly not beyond what one would expect in a dozen years time. The 1936 and 1937 issues have performed exceptionally well, reflecting the fact that these dates truly are rare, even in grades that for Proof coins are considered to be in the mid-range of quality.

A fairly recent development has been the certification of just a handful of Proof Mercury Dimes as Cameo Proofs. So rare are Mercury Dimes displaying any significant contrast between fields and devices that the certified population will always remain low, probably too low to establish Bid and Ask values.

BU ROLLS

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise interior rolls are worth less than listed prices and "gem" rolls often bring more. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark, thus bringing lower prices. "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury series, "gem full" rolls are worth more than listed prices—particularly the pre-1941 issues. Washington rolls—dull or "put together"—bring lower prices. Gem full strike Walking Liberty rolls—particularly the S-mint issues! are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT. Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN.

A Refreshing Change From Other Coin Dealers!

"Dale paid me tremendously more for my coins!"

Dear Spectrum Numismatics:

For the last few months, I have had many deals with Dale Larsen of your firm, and continue to do so. Dale has been a refreshing change from other coin dealers I have tried to deal with in Florida. I feel he is the only coin buyer I can get a fair deal from!

After several hundred bad coin deals, I was glad to find Dale, a man I finally feel comfortable with.

He always could explain in logical terms why each coin was worth a certain price. After each transaction I felt good — I was fairly and honestly treated.

Unlike other coin dealers, Dale made the deal as though we were equals. Others seem to offer excuses for paying so little, instead of giving an explanation of the fair prices.

I felt that Dale paid me tremendously more for my coins than the other dealers I have dealt with. Thank you for having an honest person like Dale Larsen working for you.

Respectfully

Wayne D.

Dale Larsen is a coin collector turned rare coin dealer. "I've walked a lot of miles in the collector's shoes and I know how he or she likes to be treated," Larsen says. His specialty is coins with "great eye appeal" and he "loves dealing with the public."

ERRORS

Affordable - Fun - Educational

by James Essence

On his American Entertainer reality TV show, Wayne Newton stated, "I always learned the most from my mistakes, not at any other times." In a similar way (I think), many numismatists are finding that collecting error coins is educational, fun, and affordable, and some dealers are beginning to capitalize on this often overlooked sector of the market.

Error coins are educational in that they reveal the subtleties of the Minting process by inspiring the collector to figure out what went wrong to produce them. Due to the enjoyment of this speculation, and due to the often spectacular visual appeal of Mint errors, collecting them is fun. And errors are affordable because they are one of the last bastions of numismatics not yet "discovered" or heavily promoted. For these reasons errors are great items for dealers to sell to their clients, whether building a set of errors, or as compliments to a "regular" coin collection. For dealers that are interested in including errors to their offerings, this article will elaborate on the educational, fun, and affordable aspects of collecting, and along the way provide some educational resources, as well a "crash-course-glossary" to help the "error-novice" dealer break his/her clients into this exciting field.

Collecting Errors Is Educational

Just as coins are educational in the fascinating stories and revelations of history that they hold, error coins hold their own unique stories. By pondering the causes of Mint errors, one can glean fascinating tales of the Minting process and what can potentially go wrong. Whether it is stories of intrigue such as a young Mint night watchman named Eckfeldt creating die clashes of Seated Halves and $20 Gold pieces on 1857 Flying Eagle Cent dies, or learning how the collar malfunctions to allow a coin to be struck off center, errors have many fascinating tales to tell.

Knowing the Minting process and viewing the extremes of its malfunction can also aid in grading and pricing of "normal" coins by sharpening one's identification skills of the differences between Mint-made and post-striking impairments. A few such contrasts that are often mistaken are as follows:

- Weak strikes and Wear.
- Die polish lines and Hairlines.
- Strike through errors and Wear.
- Clipped planchet errors and Damage.
- Laminated planchet errors and Post-striking damage.
- Strike through errors and Post-striking bag marks/damage.

Sometimes the differences can be clear, other times identification can be tricky, and if a person is familiar with errors and the Minting process that person will have an edge in proper identification.

To learn further about the causes of Mint errors, the following are recommended references: "The Error Coin Encyclopedia", by Arine Margolis and Fred Weinberg; "The Official Price Guide to Mint Errors", by Alan Herbert; "The Modern Minting Process/U.S. Minting Errors and Varieties", by James Wiles, PHD; Mint Error News magazine; and, Error Trends magazine.

Collecting Errors Is Fun

Even non-numismatists can appreciate the spectacular visual appeal of an off center Cent. Or, to the seasoned numismatist, it may be a Nickel struck on a Copper Cent planchet, a double struck Large Cent, or a capped die Barber Dime that sparks their mind into imagination and wonder. In short, viewing and owning error coins is fun. In addition to the aesthetic appeal of errors, many find speculating about how errors occur intellectually stimulating and enjoyable. Then add the camaraderie that often develops among collectors when debating how some of the more unusual multiple errors and "wonder coins" occur, and you have the sum of an enjoyable hobby. In addition to coin shows, several forums can be found on the Internet where collectors and dealers gather to discuss errors.

Collecting Errors Is Affordable

Perhaps because of the uniqueness of each Mint error, Mint errors as a whole have not been as heavily promoted as most sectors of the market. There are endless ways to collect errors according to the collector's interest and budget. It could be a young numismatist adding an off center Cent (costing under $10) to compliment his Lincoln Memorial Cent collection, or assembling a renown collection of error Large Cents like the Micheal Arconti collection of error Large Cents that realized over $4.8 million in an auction by Superior Rare Coin Galleries.

Values of Errors: As with anything, the values of errors can be broken down into the following formula: value = demand/quantity. However pricing errors is not as straightforward as pricing regular coins. Eye appeal usually accounts for a great deal more with errors. Use the previously mentioned resources as guides for pricing errors, but prices are often dramatically influenced by positive and negative eye appeal, perhaps in a way similar to dramatically toned coins in the normal coin market.

In accordance with the collector's interest and budget, some popular ways to collect errors are as follows:

Error Type Set: Set of coins exhibiting each Type of error. For example, a collection consisting of an off metal, a clipped coin, an off center, etc.

Type Set of Errors: Same as a "normal" Type Set, except each coin has an error, or a particular error, such as a 20th Century Type Set of off center coins, or a simple blank planchet set of Cent through Dollar which can be purchased for under $250.

Particular Type Set of Errors: Set of errors of the same Type on variously denominated coins. For example a collection of interesting brockages, or clips, or multiple errors.

Date Set: For example, a complete date set of Buffalo Nickels, all with clips, or even off centers for a real challenge. Or perhaps a more attainable goal of an off center Memorial Cent collection, or even zinc Memorial collection. Most dated off center Memorial Cents can be purchased for under $25 each.

Series Error Set: Consisting of error coins on a series, for example a neat collection of State Quarter or Barber Dime errors.

Complimentary Set: For example, rounding out an Uncirculated Buffalo Nickel collection with an off center and/or clip, or even an off metal for the adventurous.

"Looks Cool" Set: One of the most popular sets consisting of miscellaneous errors that simply "look cool" to the collector.

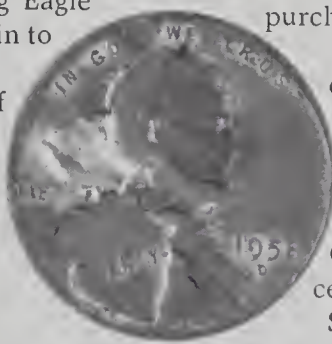

In conclusion, for many collecting error coins is educational, fun, and affordable, and presents an exciting opportunity for dealers to expand their range of offerings to clients.

To finish, a brief crash course-Know Your Errors Glossary. These are the most commonly encountered errors. For a more complete listings and explanations, see the resources listed previously:

Broadstrike: Coin struck without a collar, thus when the coin is struck the metal is allowed to expand and increase in diameter. May be centered or uncentered, but must not have any missing lettering or design detail.

Off Center: Coin struck without a collar and off center different from the uncentered broadstrike because part of the lettering or design detail is missing.

Partial Collar: Coin struck with the collar partially around the coin causing part of the edge to expand and part of the edge will be held in place (and have reeding if clad) by the collar. Also called "railroad rim" due to the edge of the coin's appearance being similar to that of the edge of a two-level railroad wheel.

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both report the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight-unseen. The coins may be certified or "Raw" (uncertified) but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current grading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGHT-UNSEEN market; such Bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid, but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

Uniface: When one side of a coin is struck normally by the dies and the other side is struck into a blank planchet or other obstruction leaving a blank appearance on that side. Commonly encountered with off center and double struck coins.

Doubled Die: Dies are made by multiple impressions from a "hub" which bears an inverse image of the dies. Dies must be impressed several times by the hub to get a good image. A Doubled Die occurs when the hub rotates, or shifts, or is changed in some way between impressions of the die creating a doubled image of elements of the design. Thus every coin struck by that die displays the same doubled elements.

Mechanical Doubling: Often looks like a Doubled Die but is not. It is caused by loose dies that twist slightly after coming into contact with the planchet causing the die to slightly drag on the coin producing a flat, shelf-like doubled appearance. Also under this classification is excessive die wear and/or improper die annealing that will cause the elements of the design to appear doubled simply because the lettering and design elements are thick and mushy. Mechanical doubling usually commands very little premium. Be especially careful of this error on 1969-S Cents which can sometimes be mistaken for the very rare and valuable 1969-S Doubled Die Cent.

Die Crack: A crack in the die into which metal from the planchet will flow when the die strikes coins. Coins struck with that die exhibit a thin raised line or "die crack."

Die Break: A chip out of the die into which metal from the planchet will flow when the die strikes coins. It appears as a raised blob of metal on the struck coins. When the die break is large it is sometimes called a "cud."

Cud: When a significant part of the edge of the die deteriorates and falls off. The coins struck with this die exhibit a raised blank area on that part of the design. Sometimes called "major die break."

Caps or Die Caps: When a coin is struck and sticks to the die for numerous strikes, the metal flows up around the die and the coin takes on the shape of a bottle cap. A very eye appealing and desirable error.

Capped Die Strike: When a die cap error is occurring, the dies continue to strike more coins even though a coin is capped around one of the dies. If the coin is capped around the obverse die, the coins struck with that die will appear blank or have varying degrees of mushiness on the obverse due to the obverse die being obstructed. If the cap stays on indefinitely, eventually it will wear through the planchet and the coins struck by that die will become less and less obstructed causing a "late-stage" capped die strike where the image is less distorted.

Indent: When a blank planchet partially overlaps another planchet in the striking chamber and gets struck, the overlapping area on the struck coin will exhibit a blank indented area from the other planchet being struck into it.

Brockage: Occurs the same as an indent, except that a struck coin is struck into a blank planchet leaving a mirror image impression, although often quite distorted due to metal flow.

Struck through Error: Occurs when a foreign object lies on top of the planchet and leaves an impression of itself when struck into the coin. A wide variety of objects have been reported including grease, string, cloth, hair, plastic, band-aid, staples, etc.

Weak Strike or Die Trial: Occurs when there is insufficient pressure from the dies to leave a full impression on the planchet. This can occur for a variety of reasons but usually occurs when the power to the presses is turned off and the dies continue to strike coins with less and less pressure until coming to a stop. On such coins all the detail, including the reeding on clad coins should exhibit extreme weakness. If the coin is simply struck through grease, some details may be strong and the edge reeding will also be strong.

Curved Clipped Planchet: Planchets are punched from large thin metal sheets. After a section of the sheet is punched, if the sheet fails to be fed far enough ahead, the punch will overlap an already punched area causing that planchet to have a circular "clip" of missing metal. A good way to tell if the coin is an error or simply damage that occurred outside the Mint is to look for signs of metal flow into the blank area, which indicates a genuine clip. This will appear as weakness and thinness around the missing metal. There will also often be a corresponding area of weakness on the rim of the opposite side of the coin, known as the "Blakesley effect." A genuine clip will never show a raised edge of metal bordering the missing metal (which usually indicates shearing) and the details bordering the area of missing metal should not be crisp.

Straight Clipped Planchet: If the metal strip shifts during the punching process and the punches overlap the straight side edge of the strip, a straight area of metal will be missing from the planchet.

Ragged Clipped Planchet: If the punches overlap the ragged ends of the strip, a resulting ragged area of missing metal occurs.

Wrong Planchet/Off Metal: When a planchet is struck by a pair of dies that do not correspond to the denomination intended for the planchet, a wrong planchet error occurs. For example a Jefferson Nickel struck on a Cent planchet will have the same weight and Copper composition as a Cent. It will likely be smaller than a Nickel, but probably slightly larger than a Cent because the Nickel collar cannot restrain the smaller Cent planchet from expanding.

Double Denomination: Occurs when an already struck coin is struck by a pair of dies of a different denomination. These coins will show details of both denominations. For example a Cent struck on a struck Dime (often called an 11¢ piece) will have the planchet of a Dime and details of both a Dime and a Cent. Usually the details of the denomination of the last dies to strike to coin are strongest and some double denomination coins barely show any detail from the denomination of the first strike.

Clashed Dies: Occurs when there is a malfunction in the planchet feeding mechanism and no planchet is fed into the striking chamber allowing the dies to strike each other. The obverse die will leave an impression in the reverse die and vice versa. Coins struck with these dies will exhibit details of both the obverse and reverse on each side of the coin. The amount of detail can vary from barely discernible to very noticeable.

Lamination: Dirt and impurities in the metal of the planchet can manifest themselves as cracks and peels on the struck coin.

Split Planchet: If the impurity is severe enough, it can cause the planchet to split into two halves obverse and reverse. If the planchet splits before the strike, the resulting coin will be thin and have detail on both sides but often intermingled with rough striations from the impurities. If the planchet splits after the strike, one side will have full detail and the other side will be blank and striated. In either case the coin will be thin.

BU ROLLS

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise inferior rolls are worth less than listed prices and "gem" rolls often bring more. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark, these bring lower prices. "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury series, "gem, full bands" rolls are worth more than listed prices, particularly the pre-1941 issues. Washington rolls - dull or "put together" bring lower prices. Gem full strike Walking Liberty rolls (particularly the S-mint issues) are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT. Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN.

WHY SUPERIOR

WILL EARN MORE FOR YOUR COINS AT AUCTION

For nearly 75 years, Superior Galleries has been helping collectors realize top prices for their coins, estates and other numismatic material. Collectors like Jascha Heifetz, Dr. Jerry Buss, Buddy Ebsen, Dr. Charles L. Ruby, Emanuel Trompeter, Robinson S. Brown, Jr., Buddy DeSylva and Efrem Zimbalist, Jr. Estates and institutions have also turned to Superior over the past eight decades. Institutions such as The Smithsonian, Father Flannagan's Boys Town, The Los Angeles Orthopaedic Foundation, California Institute of Technology, University of Wisconsin, University of New Mexico and more.

Finest Full Color Catalogues

Our full color Elite Auction catalogues are the finest in the industry, bar none. Please call us to receive a sample. 800-545-1001.

No Rarity Redundancy

At Superior, your rare coins will never get lost in the big crowd. Our boutique coin auctions are limited to often less than 3,000 lots. And, unlike the biggest auction firm which likes to offer multiple tens-of-thousands of rarities all at once, we understand the importance of your individual collection. We want you to get the most for your coins, and rarity redundancy does absolutely nothing to increase values or competition among bidders.

No Pressure Reserves

Most auction companies strongly encourage or, in some cases, push consignors to NOT place reserves. This is so they don't have to do their job! At Superior, we are confident in getting top prices, so reserves are naturally welcome and encouraged.

Guaranteed Auction Results / Highest Prices

... Or we pay you! Superior consistently guarantees the value of your coins at auction. That's how confident we are in our ability to achieve the maximum for your coins. We doubt few others can offer a guarantee like this because no one else knows the true value of your coins like Superior.

Wealthiest Clientele / Best Venues

Superior conducts auctions where the money is. We conduct three major auctions each year in Beverly Hills, two major auctions in Santa Clara, California, with other auctions held just prior to the most heavily attended coin shows in the U.S. In fact, Santa Clara is one of the highest per capita areas of those cities located near major coin shows - second only to Beverly Hills!

Superior Service

Whether you're a novice or a seasoned veteran, we'll give you the red carpet treatment. We're not in business for the short term. We want you as a client for life. At Superior, you and your coins will be given the superior treatment they deserve. Call today and let us show you what we can do for you.

Greatest Financial Backing

With the financial support of the Stanford Financial Group - and its more than $25 billion in managed assets - Superior is clearly at the top of the list when it comes to securing cash advances for your coins. Our interest rates are the lowest in the business, and we consistently offer the lowest auction commission rates in the industry. Call us for more details! Of equal importance, Superior is one of only two publicly traded coin auction firms, and therefore is subject to higher SEC regulation and oversight than virtually all of our competitors. We are truly held to a higher standard of business ethics and financial integrity.

Small Change. Big Rewards.

The American Numismatic Association welcomes numismatists of all ages, beginners and experts alike. The ANA can provide you with the knowledge you need to be a confident collector.

8 GREAT REASONS TO JOIN TODAY!

12 ISSUES OF NUMISMATIST.

Your ANA membership includes a subscription to Numismatist — the voice of the coin collecting hobby since 1891. Every month, you will receive a new issue filled with dazzling, full-color illustrations, tips on what and how to collect, columns by the hobby's most respected numismatists and much more.

BORROW THE BOOK BEFORE YOU BUY THE COIN.

The Dwight N. Manley Numismatic Library allows you to expand your horizons by borrowing any of 50,000 books, videos and slide programs. Or let us help you with your research.

LEARN WHAT THE EXPERTS KNOW!

The ANA is the largest, educational numismatic organization in the world. Members can participate in seminars, home-study courses and Numismatic Theatre presentations.

SAVE MONEY.

The MoneyMarket has the latest and best in books and supplies, available at a substantial member discount. And new members get a coupon for an additional 10% off Littleton Coin Supplies.

INSURANCE.

Insure your collection for as little as 50 cents per $100 of value. Your homeowners' policy can't match the rates or the coverage.

GRADING AND CONSERVATION SERVICES.

Avoid the middleman — ANA members can submit coins directly to Numismatic Guaranty Corporation (NGC) for grading and Numismatic Conservation Services (NCS) for conservation.

ANA CONVENTIONS: THE HIGHLIGHT OF THE NUMISMATIC YEAR.

Shop the bourse, attend Numismatic Theatre presentations and club meetings, and enjoy the hobby's largest collection of educational exhibits. The National Money Show™ (every spring) and the World's Fair of Money® (late summer) create opportunities for numismatists across the country to buy, sell, meet and learn with the best.

MEDIATION SERVICES.

The $14,000 Silver Eagle!

An analysis of the first 20 years of Mint State American Silver Eagles

By David Goldsmith

When Dr. William H. Sheldon developed his 70-point grading system in 1948, he undoubtedly had no idea the effect he would have on future generations of coin collectors and dealers. Developed originally for Large Cents, it was, at least to some extent, economically based. A coin that was a Very Fine 20 was worth approximately 20 times as valuable as a Poor 1. Since then, it has been applied to all series of coins.

Coins made for circulation by the U.S. Mint are produced for currency in everyday commercial transactions. They are produced in huge quantities with little regard for their preservation for future collectors. On the Sheldon scale, Mint State coins range from MS60 to MS70. Most Uncirculated coins made for circulation fall in the MS60 to MS66 range. Mint State 67 and 68 coins are especially scarce, and an MS69 coin was unheard of. That is, until The U.S. Mint began producing Commemorative coins in 1982, and Silver Eagles in 1986. For the first time, other than for Proof Sets, the Mint took care in the production and preservation of Mint State coins, placing each "Modern Commemorative" in a protective capsule, and Silver Eagles in rolls of 20, instead of a huge hopper.

In the past 20 years, many Silver Eagles have been slabbed by the two major grading services, PCGS and NGC. This is especially true in the past year, as their popularity with collectors has created a huge demand for these issues, in MS69, and especially, in MS70. According to Bill Conroy, Senior Grader at NGC, "There has been an amazing demand for certified Silver Eagles, especially in the past year, from TV merchandisers and Internet sellers. They are discovering that many Silver Eagles are not perfect, and many do not meet the stringent requirements of an MS69 or MS70". The MS69 prices in this article refer to PCGS or NGC certified coins. The MS70 prices refer to NGC only, as there are not enough PCGS coins graded MS70 to establish a market.

The 1986 issue was the first to be produced. Authorized by Congress, production began in November 1986. The Silver Eagle was strictly a Silver bullion coin, although monetized with a face value of One Dollar. Since there were only two months left in the year, and the Mint did not want to create a rarity, production was stepped up, and 5.3 million coins were produced. This issue often comes with satiny surfaces; although many have evidence of die polishing, as the dies were over-used to get the maximum number of coins produced. I have seen coins with slightly prooflike surfaces, and I currently own the only Silver Eagles graded proof like by NGC (MS69PL). A 1986 Silver Eagle was the first coin to be graded a perfect MS70, by PCGS, in 1987. I recall that coin was examined carefully before finally declaring it a 70. It is considered a slightly better date with a current CDN wholesale Bid of $14.75. MS69 examples trade in the $35 range, MS70s trade around $350, with a population of 357.

In 1987, many coins (over 11 million) were again struck, as the demand was still extremely high. Surfaces are similar to the 1986 issue, with die polishing evident. Wholesale CDN Bid is $8.50. MS69s sell for $25, although MS70s are very rare, selling for $3,000 or more. Only 37 have been graded.

The 1988 coins suffered the same production issues, and are rarely found with satiny surfaces. While wholesale CDN Bid is $10.75, and MS69s sell at $27, the MS70 is the most elusive of the series with only 20 graded. While current offers on the coin dealer networks average $3,000, recent eBay auction sales have been recorded at $8,000, and most recently, at $13,900!

Many 1989 coins have very smooth surfaces, indicative of new dies being used for this year. The CDN records Bid at $9.75. MS69s go for around $32, and MS70s for $500, with a population of 216 coins.

The 1990 has a similar look, although a bit scarcer, with a CDN Bid of $10.50. An MS69 is $30, while the MS70 with a population of 99, sells for $750.

While 1991 issues are a bit more frosty, they are getting tough to find, even though CDN Bid is only $9, a seemingly under priced issue. The MS69 is $30, while the tough MS70, with a mere 43 pieces graded, goes for over $1,000.

In 1992, this starts several years of coins plagued with white spots, even on coins coming from original sealed boxes. CDN Bid is $10.50. While similar in appearance to the previous year, they are tougher in MS69 with a value of $35. MS70s are around $600 with a population of 118.

The 1993 coins have especially bad spotting problems. Perhaps caused by improper rinsing, or some other production problems, many times a third of an original box of 500 will have them, and thus are scarce in MS69, at about $45, and MS70 at $1,000 with a population of 76 pieces. CDN Bid is $8.75.

Although less pronounced, the 1994 also has quality problems, with a Bid of $10.75. MS69s are at $32 and MS70s at $1,200 with a pop of 99.

Most 1995 Silver Eagles I have seen are nice, although they can be baggy at times. Bid is $10.50. MS69s sell for $26 and MS70s for $700 with a population of 207.

The 1996 is probably the worst in average quality of all 20 years of Silver Eagle production. They come with bad spotting problems, although when nice, generally all coins in a box will be nice. This scarce and now hard to find date has a CDN Bid of $34, and no sellers to be found. The MS69 comes in at around $90, and the MS70 at $800 with a pop of only 73 coins.

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both report the national Dealer to Dealer wholesale coin market monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight seen. The coins may be certified or Raw (uncertified) but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current reading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGHT-UNSEEN market; such Bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid Ask levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

Also a tough date, the 1997 is getting harder to find, with a wholesale Bid of $14.25, and sells in the $17 range. Spots are still a minor problem. The MS69 brings $35, while the MS70 is at $500 with 351 graded.

By 1998, production at the Mint increased, and the quality did also. At $10.25 Bid, they can be found much more readily than the previous two years, and sell for $27 in MS69, and $350 in MS70, with a pop of 186.

1999 saw a huge spike in demand as Y2K worries prompted the hoarding of Silver Eagles. They were produced and sold in huge quantities, but the quality was better than average. Bid at $9.75, MS69s sell for $32, and the tough MS70, with only 53 coins certified, trades for over $1,000.

2000 year Silver Eagles were also struck in large numbers, and die polishing plagued them as well. Bid at $8.50, considered a common date, except in MS70. The MS69 goes for $24, and the MS70, with a pop of 130, at around $450.

There was a special MILLENNIUM SET issued this year, containing a specially produced Sacagawea Dollar, as well as a 2000 Silver Eagle produced at the West Point Mint. While no W mintmark was added, the 75,000 sets produced make it the lowest production Silver Eagle in Mint State condition. If submitted in the original Millennium set holder, BOTH PCGS and NGC will certify it as such. The MS69 from this set goes for $100, while the MS70, with a tiny population of only 13 pieces have gone for $5,000 (my sale), and more recently, for as much as $11,000! If the Mint had included the "W" mintmark, they would sell for considerably more, in my opinion, and are a great bargain (MS69) at $100.

In 2001, large quantities of Silver Eagles were sold. Many were put into IRAs (Individual Retirement Accounts), and are now available in sealed boxes of 500. Most are nice, and many meet the MS69 requirements. CDN Bid is at $8.65. MS69s sell for $22, and MS70s go for $300, with a population of 244.

The 2002 issue really began the mass certification, as close to 100,000 of this date have been slabbed. With a CDN Bid of $8.65, it is a readily available date. MS69s go for $21, and MS70s have been selling for $200, with a large population of 1,687 pieces.

2003 is also a common date, but has had some problems with spotting. It has a slightly higher CDN Bid of $8.50. MS69s are $21, and MS70s at $200 with a pop of 1,560 pieces.

The 2004 issue was struck from specially prepared dies. The dies were sandblasted with tiny glass beads, giving coins struck from them a beautiful "satin" finish, a process to be used on all future Mint State Silver Eagles, Uncirculated Modern Commemoratives, and Mint Sets, beginning with the 2005, which were just released.

This year brought an unforeseen problem. The struck coins were slightly larger in diameter, and consequently got stuck in the plastic tube. Because of this, a much smaller percentage of this year's issue has been graded an MS70, as they were easily damaged when removed from their tubes. CDN Bid is $8.65. MS69s go for $20, and MS70s, trading at first for over $400, now sell at the $200 level, with a population of 1,365.

In its 20th year, the 2005 Silver Eagle was produced with the same satin finish of the previous year. The average quality seems higher, and many more are being graded as MS70. MS69s bring $20, and MS70s are down to around $150 with a pop of 2,585.

The popularity of collecting Silver Eagles shows no evidence of diminishing. Fueling this fervor are the

Registry Sets, started by PCGS and NGC. PCGS

Registry Sets can contain only PCGS coins.

Sets with the highest average grade have the most "grade points" and are rated compared to other registered sets. NGC Registry Sets can contain NGC and PCGS coins, and collectors compete to have the highest average grade in their sets. Coins are added and deleted as the collector "upgrades" his set.

NGC verifies each addition, including PCGS coins.

The pride of having the "finest known" set in each respective registry has driven recent auction and Internet prices to incredible levels. Whether or not these prices will continue their upward spiral depends on future demand, and judging from recent auction and Internet prices realized, they may just do so!

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise inferior rolls are worth less than listed prices and "gem" rolls often bring more. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark (these bring lower prices); "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury series, "gem, full steps" rolls and others more than listed prices—particularly the pre-1944 issues, Washington rolls—don't or "put together" bring lower prices. Gem full strike walking Liberty coins (particularly the S-mint issues) are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT; Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN.

Small Change. Big Rewards.

The American Numismatic Association welcomes numismatists of all ages, beginners and experts alike. The ANA can provide you with the knowledge you need to be a confident collector.

8 GREAT REASONS TO JOIN TODAY!

12 ISSUES OF NUMISMATIST.

Your ANA membership includes a subscription to Numismatist — the voice of the coin collecting hobby since 1891. Every month, you will receive a new issue filled with dazzling, full-color illustrations, tips on what and how to collect, columns by the hobby's most respected numismatists and much more.

BORROW THE BOOK BEFORE YOU BUY THE COIN.

The Dwight N. Manley Numismatic Library allows you to expand your horizons by borrowing any of 50,000 books, videos and slide programs. Or let us help you with your research.

LEARN WHAT THE EXPERTS KNOW!

The ANA is the largest, educational numismatic organization in the world. Members can participate in seminars, home-study courses and Numismatic Theatre presentations.

SAVE MONEY.

The MoneyMarket has the latest and best in books and supplies, available at a substantial member discount. And new members get a coupon for an additional 10% off Littleton Coin Supplies.

INSURANCE.

Insure your collection for as little as 50 cents per $100 of value. Your homeowners' policy can't match the rates or the coverage.

GRADING AND CONSERVATION SERVICES.

Avoid the middleman — ANA members can submit coins directly to Numismatic Guaranty Corporation (NGC) for grading and Numismatic Conservation Services (NCS) for conservation.

ANA CONVENTIONS: THE HIGHLIGHT OF THE NUMISMATIC YEAR.

Shop the bourse, attend Numismatic Theatre presentations and club meetings, and enjoy the hobby's largest collection of educational exhibits. The National Money Show™ (every spring) and the World's Fair of Money® (late summer) create opportunities for numismatists across the country to buy, sell, meet and learn with the best.

MEDIATION SERVICES.

Mediation for numismatic disputes is available through the ANA.

Part 1

by Larry Hanks

Both personally and professionally, my favorite area of numismatics is working with the coinage of the United States minted between 1792-1839.

I was initially drawn to this area by my keen, passionate interests in art, history, and economics. Artistically to me, their designs are breathtakingly beautiful, with their symbolic designs strongly conveying to the world the core beliefs of the sovereignty of America. Historically, my interest was stimulated by the sheer magnitude of the challenges and subsequent sacrifices that were endured by our founding fathers. The personalities of America's leaders alone are a remarkable study in psychology, political and military science, and medically, a study in just plain having a backbone.

Over the years, I was fortunate to have access to many great early American coin collections, as well as to be able to spend quality time with their owners. This included encounters with numerous numismatic scholars, and "old timers" who generously shared their knowledge in this realm.

My interaction with these individuals, along with my continuing research has allowed me to develop and explore my own ideas about this field. Thereby at the request of the publisher of the CDN Monthly Supplement, here is a brief analysis of U.S. Bust Gold Half Eagles from 1795-1834. Part 1 will deal with the Gold Half Eagle coinage from 1795 to 1799 (Scot's Small Eagle and Heraldic designs).

Please note, due to space limitations, comments are brief in detailing this complicated, but intriguing series. It is a series that is constantly changing with new discoveries (see below), knowledge, revelations, and distortions. An example of a current, prevalent distortion is the enormous number of certified coins that have been "cracked out" for potential up grading over the past 19 years. This activity has led to grossly distorted and inaccurate population and grading statistics. Furthermore, despite a growing body of wonderfully published research material by such individuals as Breen, Hilt, Julian, Akers, Miller, and Taraszka there still has been a certain amount of confusion (i.e. pedigrees; varieties; etc.) for many dates in this series.

This lack of clarity is about to change for the better. Later this year, a major reference book by John Dannreuther will be published on United States Bust Quarter, Half, and Gold Eagles (1795-1834), by variety. Mr. Dannreuther's book is based upon the original studies by legendary collector Harry W. Bass, Jr. Mr. Bass spent over 30 years meticulously compiling and detailing these Gold coin series. Along with his own considerable amount of voluminous research and other specialists (from the past and present) notations, I can unequivocally state that the Dannreuther/Bass book will become the definitive standard reference work.

Mr. Bass, who died before he could publish his work, would be proud of J.D.'s masterpiece. There are too many highlights to mention, but as an example, Mr. Dannreuther in his research reveals 10 important new varieties (moving the overall census from 133 to 143) of $5 Bust Gold coins. The photography is superb, making variety identification much simpler. I would strongly encourage you to purchase a copy.

The following are some general observations that can be applied to most of the issues in this brief $5 study.

Auctions

Some basic information, by date, is included on the approximate number of auction appearances since 1993. In dealing with auction appearances, it is important to understand, that a large number of the coins offered, could be the same coin being re-consigned for sale, at different times (also different grade) to different auctions, either by the same consignor or a new owner.

Other than the experts in the field, the average collector is going to have a problem determining this aspect. Additional pertinent factors could become critical if one is to achieve a successful transaction. This is one reason for using a professional in auction representation. In my date study below, a good estimate of the actual number of different specimens being offered via auction is difficult to ascertain, however, a good estimate would be to cut the number in half.

Rarity Estimates

In dealing with virtually any Bust Gold coin, the reality is that there are only a very few issues in which an exact number of specimens (1822-3, 1825/4-2, 1797 16 Stars, Heraldic Eagle-1, etc.) are known. Unfortunately we deal in an imperfect statistical market.

My estimates of rarity are based upon my research. Other experts certainly have different rarity data based upon their research. But, at the end of the day, we are all close in our estimates. Thus, one can get a good feel for the rarity of a particular issue by utilizing many sources.

Whether or not there's 13 or 14 of a date known, it's still going to be very rare, and expensive. More important questions would be how many are already permanently housed in collections? Is this a variety or date rarity, and where do the available specimens lie?

These are important questions for a dealer or collector, due to the difficulty in acquiring the rarest issues. Unfortunately, a large percentage of the rarest dates (i.e. 1798 $5 Small Eagle, 1810 Large Date, Small 5, 1828/7, 1829, etc.) are already impounded in collections.

Unless one of these collectors or museums breaks loose with their coins, new collectors will have to exercise patience.

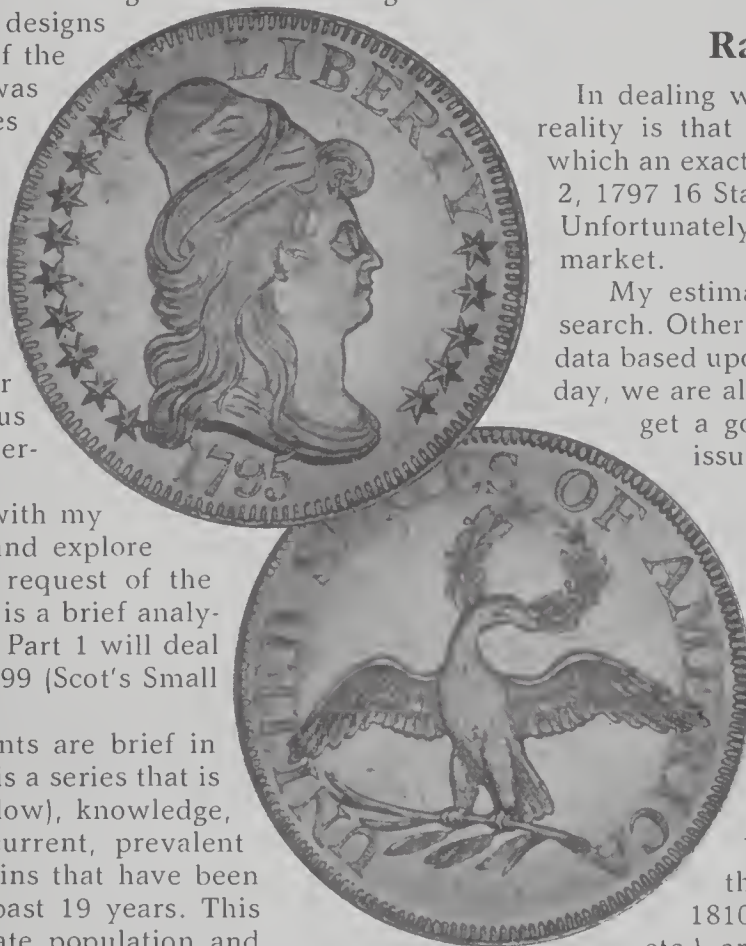

Hopefully, through further generations of numismatic research, rarity information will be more conclusive.

Grading

Interestingly, the average grade found for the majority of early Bust Gold coinage ($2½, $5 and $10) is in the VF to XF category. All of the dates in these series have a considerable number of repaired or excessively worn coins being known.

Specifically dealing with the Half Eagle series, most dates after 1800, have a fair percentage of AUs and lower grade Mint State (MS60-62) specimens that are available for purchase each year. In the grades of Mint State 63 and 64, there are a number of dates with specimens known. This quality is quite rare; accordingly they rise quickly in value and desirability. Gem quality specimens, for any date, are very rare to extremely rare. Typically, a few specimens from 1800 onward are offered for sale each year, but many of the best-known Gem specimens are already included in well-established collections. For the Heraldic Eagle coins dated prior to 1800, AUs are far rarer.

Regarding the Small Eagle dates of Gold Half Eagles, with the exception of the 1795 Small Eagle, all are very rare to extremely rare in any condition. Additionally, the total population for all dates combined that are truly Uncirculated is minuscule.

Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. ### Date-By-Date Analysis (1795-1799)

1795 Small Eagle

Mintage 8,707 Varieties: 15 Scarce

First year of issue, with numerous high grade examples being known. Relatively easy (over 200 pieces have sold in auction in the past ten years) to obtain in all conditions up to Mint State 63. Somewhat over priced, when compared to values of other much rarer dates in the Bust $5 Gold series. However, this date is extraordinarily popular because it is the first year of issue. It has a beautiful, artistic design. It is required for both Date and Type collections. Some specimens (including Uncs) are found with rusted obverse dies. This was most likely created from a lack of protecting the dies with a liquid fat prior to storage of the dies. Why storage? It was because of annual deadly outbreaks of Yellow Fever in the late summer/autumn periods between 1795-1798 when the U.S. Mint had to shut down. This sometimes caused them to have to quickly store their gear in the Bank of the United States. Then, like many people, the employees left Philadelphia for safety. After the disease had run its course (normally July-October), they would return to the Mint in late November or December. Ultimately, these constant evacuations placed severe time pressure on the Mint in getting the current year Gold coins placed into circulation. One end result was the creation of several very rare hybrid varieties and overdates. Estimated 500 or more coins known of all varieties.

1796/5 Small Eagle

Mintage: 6,196 Varieties: 1 Very Rare

This date is very rare in all grades with only a handful of Mint State examples being known. The overdate was created from the reworking of a 1795 Close Date obverse die. The finest known example used to be the Auction 82/Whitney specimen.

When studying auction and private treaty prices over the past decade, this date has not increased appreciably in value for most grades. Considering its rarity, it is still a good value. Over 30 specimens have sold via public auction during the past 12 years. An estimated 40-50 coins being known, with the average grade being VF/XF.

Half Eagles of 1797

Mintage: 1,162 15 Stars Varieties: 7 Extremely
1,390 16 Stars Rare

By any measure, this is an extraordinary year for Gold Bust Half Eagles, perhaps even the most dynamic date by variety and rarity of the entire series.

Typically for any date collector, it is one of the most difficult years to obtain in any grade, by any variety. Discounting any coins that are embedded in museums (all 3 unique varieties are in institutions), a good estimate of total specimens available for collectors are: 10-15, 1797 Small Eagle, 16 obverse Stars (common variety-2 Berries outside of Wreath); 18-20 specimens available of the 1797 Small Eagle 15 Stars obverse variety; and 15-18 1797/5 overdate/Heraldic Eagle reverse Type. But alas, the vast majority of the above mentioned (ambiguously available) specimens are already included in collections! Indeed, when any of them do come available, the price and competition are stiff. As far as grade is concerned, the majority of the coins known are in the VF/XF range. A fair number of surviving specimens are damaged or have been repaired at some time in the past. There are no truly Choice or Gem Uncirculated specimens known for any of the varieties. There are a few specimens that grade AU, and also a few that make the low Mint State grade ranges. In the past decade, there have been about 20 combined auction (5-7 different specimens) appearances for the 15 and 16 Stars varieties, with about 10 appearances for the 1797/5 overdate. Want to supplement your retirement accounts nicely? Locate another specimen of a 1797 16 Stars obverse/Heraldic Eagle reverse.

1795 (Struck in 1797) Large (Heraldic) Eagle Reverse

Mintage: Unknown Varieties: 3 Very Rare

With an estimated population of only 35-40 specimens known, this date and variety, has long been a favorite design and rarity by numismatists. Using the marriage of leftover "first year of issue" 1795 Close Date obverse die, with the newly introduced "first year of issue" 1797 Heraldic Eagle reverse die, these added coins, while dated 1795 were actually struck in 1797. Why? Because of the added cost of producing new dies in the 18th and early 19th century, the U.S. Mint frequently resorted to the practice of using leftover dies from earlier years for current production. Thus, we have the popularity of this historically, beautiful, and quite rare hybrid.

Noteworthy, is the fact that the average grade for this coin tends to be higher, than for most other years prior to 1800. The average grade is in the XF/AU range with several impressive BU specimens being known. Additionally, many specimens have highly reflective to prooflike surfaces. There have been about 10 auction appearances in the past decade.

1798 Small Eagle Reverse

7 or 8 Known Varieties: 1 Extremely Rare

Created through the marriage of a leftover 1795 reverse die and a 1798 obverse die, This is one of the famous Bust $5 rarities. Currently, there are either 7 or 8 specimens known. Previously there were 7 specimens known. All are believed to be in collections, (some not seen in over 50 years), but a new specimen has turned up in the south in the late 1990s. Was this an 8th coin, or one of the 7 specimens with a confused pedigree?

The finest known specimen is an AU. Interestingly, since this coin is dated 1798, which was the first year of issue for the now ubiquitous 13 Star obverse design, (previously 15 or 16 Stars), this is a one year only Type! I've seen only two auction records in the past decade.

1798 Heraldic Eagle

Mintage: 24,867 Varieties: 7 Rare to Extremely Rare

Visually, a great year for varieties! In 1798 we have such variety diversity as the fabulous 1798 Small Eagle, 1798 Large 8, 13 Stars reverse, 1798 Large Date, 14 Star reverse (18-20 known), and other several normal 8 varieties. Importantly, collectors should be aware in dealing with this date of the Star configurations on the reverse. The Star pattern is found in both a cross and arc configuration. This is a year that already has significant collector interest by variety. When you run across one...do your homework...it could pay dividends! A total of about 250 1798 $5 Heraldic Eagles are known. Over 75 auction records in the past 12 years of the 13 Star Type and only about 20 of the 14 Star Type.

1799 Heraldic Eagle

Mintage: 7,451 Varieties: 9 Rare to Very Rare

Varieties include 4 or 5 Berries, Small or Large Stars on the reverse, with both cross and arc reverse Star configurations known. The Large Star reverse is very rare. As is the Small Star reverse with arc Star pattern. Typically found in the grades of Very Fine or Extremely Fine. Probably due to the date being the last date in the century, I've encountered many specimens that are damaged from jewelry use.

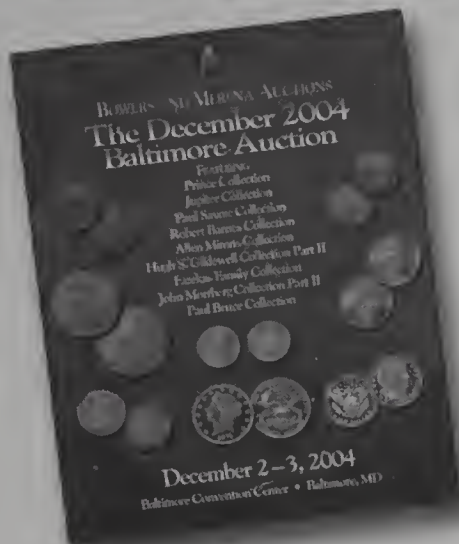

In accurately graded coins in the AU58-MS62 range, this date is far more difficult than most people realize. In truly Choice Uncirculated to Gem Uncirculated it is very, very rare. The Eliasberg specimen is most likely the finest known. Estimated 150-175 coins known. About 75 auction appearances in the last 12 years of all varieties.

All Modern Eagles and Sets must contain complete original U.S. Mint packaging.

		$1 Silver		$5 Gold		$10 Gold		$25 Gold		$50 Gold		Gold Year Set		GREYSHEET GRADING STANDARDS Numbers are used as shorthand for adjectival grading. The following descriptions are used throughout the CDN to designate the exact quality of Brilliant Uncirculated coins. Grade descriptions do not necessarily apply to modern government issues because they are handled more carefully when minted, therefore, they are all usually high grades.

WHY YOUR COINS WILL SELL FOR MORE IN A SUPERIOR GALLERIES OF BEVERLY HILLS ELITE AUCTION

Finest Full Color Catalogues

Our full color Elite Auction catalogues are the finest in the industry, bar none. Please call us to receive a sample: 800-545-1001.

No Rarity Redundancy

At Superior, your rare coins will never get lost in the big crowd. Our "boutique" coin auctions are often limited to fewer than 3,000 lots. And, unlike the biggest auction firm which likes to offer tens of thousands of rarities all at once, we understand the importance of your individual collection. We want you to get the most for your coins, and rarity redundancy (multiple examples of the same coin in the same auction) works against that goal by increasing the immediate supply and thus lowering prices.

No Pressure Reserves

Most auction companies strongly encourage or, even push consignors to NOT place reserves. They do this in order to make their job easier, and to increase their "sell-through" rates! At Superior, we are confident in getting top prices, so reserves are naturally welcomed and encouraged.

Internet Bidding

Superior Galleries of Beverly Hills regularly conducts live Internet bidding through eBayLive, and our Internet absentee bidding site at www.SGBH.com allows for increased competition from clients who have registered for our auctions! Also, so as to leave no stone unturned, we have aggressively formed alliances to place coins on other Web site platforms including Overstock.com and Amazon.com, among others, while constantly pushing the marketplace envelope on behalf of our clients.

Wealthiest Clientele / Best Venues

Superior conducts auctions at the most exclusive venues. We conduct three major auctions each year in Beverly Hills and two major auctions in Santa Clara, California, with other auctions held just prior to the most heavily attended coin shows in the U.S. In fact, Santa Clara is one of the highest per capita income areas of those cities located near major coin shows - second only to Beverly Hills!

Elite Total Return Guarantee™

Superior will evaluate your coins and, based upon the strength of that expert evaluation, guarantee a minimum price realized after commissions for your coins. Ask all other auction firms to make you the same offer and you're likely to find that most will not offer you a guaranteed sale price. On top of that, our guaranteed price will typically be higher than most companies will ever estimate your collection to be worth.

Superior Service

Whether you're a novice or a seasoned veteran, we'll give you the red carpet treatment. We are not in business for the short term. We want you as a client for life. At Superior, you and your coins will be given the Superior treatment they deserve. Call today and let us show you what we mean by Superior service.

Greatest Financial Backing

With the financial support of the Stanford Financial Group – and its more than $27 billion in assets under management – Superior Galleries of Beverly Hills offers consignors the peace of mind that comes with rock solid financial backing. As one of only two publicly traded rare coin auction firms, we are truly held to a higher standard of business ethics and financial integrity.

Small Change. Big Rewards.

The American Numismatic Association welcomes numismatists of all ages, beginners and experts alike. The ANA can provide you with the knowledge you need to be a confident collector.

8 GREAT REASONS TO JOIN TODAY!

12 ISSUES OF NUMISMATIST.

Your ANA membership includes a subscription to Numismatist — the voice of the coin collecting hobby since 1891. Every month, you will receive a new issue filled with dazzling, full-color illustrations, tips on what and how to collect, columns by the hobby's most respected numismatists and much more.

BORROW THE BOOK BEFORE YOU BUY THE COIN.

The Dwight N. Manley Numismatic Library allows you to expand your horizons by borrowing any of 50,000 books, videos and slide programs. Or let us help you with your research.

LEARN WHAT THE EXPERTS KNOW!

The ANA is the largest, educational numismatic organization in the world. Members can participate in seminars, home-study courses and Numismatic Theatre presentations.

SAVE MONEY.

The MoneyMarket has the latest and best in books and supplies, available at a substantial member discount. And new members get a coupon for an additional 10% off Littleton Coin Supplies.

INSURANCE.

Insure your collection for as little as 50 cents per $100 of value. Your homeowners' policy can't match the rates or the coverage.

GRADING AND CONSERVATION SERVICES.

Avoid the middleman — ANA members can submit coins directly to Numismatic Guaranty Corporation (NGC) for grading and Numismatic Conservation Services (NCS) for conservation.

ANA CONVENTIONS: THE HIGHLIGHT OF THE NUMISMATIC YEAR.

Shop the bourse, attend Numismatic Theatre presentations and club meetings, and enjoy the hobby's largest collection of educational exhibits. The National Money Show™ (every spring) and the World's Fair of Money® (late summer) create opportunities for numismatists across the country to buy, sell, meet and learn with the best.

MEDIATION SERVICES.

Mediation for numismatic disputes is available through the ANA.

Early American Gold Half Eagles (1795-1834)

Part 2

by Larry Hanks

This is part two of a three part article presenting a brief date study and overview of United States Bust Gold Half Eagles minted from 1795-1834. Last month, the coins minted between 1795-1799 were covered. In this issue we'll explore the Bust $5 Gold coinage minted from 1800-1815. The following are some additional comments:

Mintages: Various advanced reference books raise the question of what the true mintage figures were for many of the dates in this series. The mintage figures used for this article are taken from a recent "A Guide Book Of United States Coins" by R. S. Yeoman as it is the standard reference that is used by most numismatists. Ironically, for most of the years involved, it is a moot point. Over the past 170-210 years, this series has suffered an extreme attrition rate through use, export, and meltings, etc. which has left virtually every date being classified as rare.

Finest Known Specimens: The specimens listed in this article as being the finest known are not absolute, but are based upon my personal examination of many Gem quality specimens both in auction and in such private or institutional collections as the Smithsonian Institution, Bass, and other major collections of early Gold coins. Furthermore, there is general agreement among most experts as to specific certified specimens being the finest known. Certainly there other specimens that could qualify for being the finest known that have never been certified for grading. There is always some disagreement, among specialists, on which specimen is the best. A good case in point is, that not long ago I was involved in a transaction involving two gem 1805 $5 Gold coins, either of which could qualify for being the finest, depending on one's personal viewpoint as to color, strike, adjustment marks, etc. Both had been graded MS65 and both were gorgeous. Confounding the issue is my knowledge of a third Gem specimen in a collection that is uncertified. Thus, in many cases in this article I refer to a coin as "among the (or equal to the) finest known".

Varieties: In exploring this series, one will quickly note the extensiveness of the varieties that have been confirmed. I feel an excellent opportunity is available now in collecting, or establishing yourself as a variety expert in this series for those individuals that decide to commit sufficient discretionary financial resources, time, and study to this series. However, like all worthy endeavors, the word commitment should not be taken lightly. If you're on a limited budget, a comprehensive date/variety collection can be accomplished, but plan on dedicating 10-20 years for the project, to enable one to still live an equilibrium based life.

Today, there are large numbers of very rare varieties (in every grade imaginable; in multiple seemingly scarce dates) that are under-valued. Because the collecting base is still relatively small for this series, prices are still quite reasonable and affordable. Typically, it's not unusual for high rarity varieties in a more common date coin (even a very rare dates), to bring just a small premium or no premium to the price for the date. In my view, this will be changing in the future. These varieties within the next decade should begin experiencing sharp appreciation in price and collector and dealer participation.

One only has to look at the U.S. Bust designs for the Large Cents, Half Dollars, Quarters, Dollars, etc. that initially began as a date collected series, but now have a large established variety collecting/dealer base. The efforts of such numismatic scholars as Sheldon, Woodin, Adams, Newcomb, Bolender, and Overton, etc. who were pioneers in numismatic variety studies, garnered significant attention to their respective series. Ultimately, this attention translated into exponential collector growth and value increases in the respective series. Like the above predecessor's reference works, the soon to be released Dannreuther/Bass reference book on Early Bust Gold will spark strong interest in new participants entering this field. I would anticipate that soon after its publication, any collector or dealer offerings of early Bust Gold will be conducted with precise variety/rarity attributions for the date, and subsequently initial price explorations for the specific variety will begin in earnest. It will take a few years (and market swings), for this exploration to establish market values for all the issues, but it will happen. For those of us that have done the homework it should result in a lot of fun, and perhaps a substantial payday.

Date-By-Date Analysis (1800-1815)

1800 Heraldic Eagle

Mintage: 37,628

Varieties: 6

Rare

Generally available in all the grades up to Mint State 62. Choice Uncirculated specimens are rarer than 1802/1, 1803/2, 1805, 1806 (Knob 6), and 1807. Gem specimens are extremely rare. The finest known specimen (NGC MS66), recently sold in public auction for $241,000. Four of the five varieties known have a "Blunt 1" in the date; the "Pointed 1" is the rarity. Estimated 300 known with a large population of former jewelry pieces. Over 150 auction appearances of all varieties in the past 12 years.

1802/1 Heraldic Eagle

Mintage: 53,176

Varieties: 8

Rare

Easily identifiable, sharp overdate. Available in grades up to the grade of Mint State 64. The amazing (PCGS MS66) Ex-Norman Stack/Great Lakes Collection specimen is the finest known. Estimated 500 coins known. Over 150 auction appearances of all varieties in the past 12 years.

1803/2 Heraldic Eagle

Mintage: 33,506

Varieties: 4

Rare

Easily identifiable sharp overdate. About as rare as the 1802/1. Available in all grades up to Mint State 64. Estimated 300 coins known. There are 3 or 4 gems known, with the former Spectrum/Manley (PCGS MS66) being the finest. Over 150 auction appearances of all varieties in the past 12 years.

1804 Heraldic Eagle

Mintage: 30,475

Varieties: 7

Rare to Very Rare

Varieties include Small over Large Date with the numeral 8 being the most prominent aspect of the overdate. Several other varieties also known in Small 4 or Normal 4 varieties. Close inspection is required in evaluating this year for variety attribution. It is also a popular year, due to its famous cousin the 1804 Silver Dollar. Rarer than the previous two years in all grades. Choice specimens are seldom offered with true Gem Uncirculated examples (of any variety) being extremely rare. Estimated 250 coins known. Approximately 125 auction appearances of all varieties in the past 12 years.

1805 Heraldic Eagle

Mintage: 33,183

Varieties: 5

Rare

Scarcer as a date than 1800, 1802/1, 1803/2, and 1806, but typically, doesn't command a premium over the other dates. In the past few years all grades up to Mint State 65 have been offered for sale. More true Gems are known than the 1800 and 1804 years, but still very rare. Estimated 200 coins known. Approximately 125 auction appearances of all varieties in the past 12 years.

1806 Heraldic Eagle Pointed 6, 8 X 5 Obverse Stars

Mintage: 9,676

Varieties: 5

Rare

Despite having more varieties than the Knob 6, the Pointed 6 Type is far scarcer. Unquestionably, the finest specimen is the former 1978 ANA Branigan Sale/Ken Goldman/Jon Rogers specimen. This coin has superb color, immaculate prooflike surfaces, and is sharply struck. Estimated 75-100 coins known. Approximately 85 auction sales in the last 12 years.

1806 Heraldic Eagle Round or Knob 6, 7 X 6 Obverse Stars

Mintage: 54,417

Varieties: 1

Common

This is the most common date of the entire $5 series. Generally available in all grades up to Mint State 64. However, Gems are very rare. Estimated 1200+ coins known. Over 200 auction appearances in the past 12 years.

1807 Heraldic Eagle

Mintage: 32,488

Varieties: 6

Rare

With the exception of the most common variety (Small Date and Small Stars), this is one of the "sleepers" dates in original, high Mint State grades. The majority of certified Mint State coins have been "played with" to enhance their certified grade. Because of this, and also because the coin has a naturally soft strike, most Mint State 1807's have a pale, washed out look. I have only seen two Gem original specimens, the finer of the two being the Ron Gillio/Jon Rogers specimen that first appeared on the West Coast circa 1989. Estimated 300 coins known. Over 150 auction appearances for all varieties in the past 12 years.

THE CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both represent the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell. The coins may be certified or "Raw" (uncertified) but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGHT-UNSEEN market, such Bids may include the cost attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

Mintage: 51,605 Varieties: 1 Scarce

Perhaps, because of the change in design, this date was saved. It is available in all grades up to Mint State 64. The finest known are two different fabulous "67's", both of which are in the same collection.

Mintage: combined with 1808 Varieties: 2 Very Rare

The 1808/7 is rare in all grades. In Choice Uncirculated (MS63-64) it is very rare, with only a handful of specimens known. Unfortunately, a number of certified coins that have been graded from MS61-63 are over graded by 2 points. I have only seen or heard of one or two Gem specimens.

Mintage: 55,578 Varieties: 2 Rare

The 1808 date is the rarest date of Mr. Reich's Capped Bust Left series (1807-1812). Although generally available each year, far less of this date are encountered. Unmolested, Mint State 62 or higher coins are rare, with MS64 being very rare. Gems? Two or three.

1809/8 Capped Bust Left

Mintage: 33,875 Varieties: 1 Very Scarce

A popular overdate with a distinctive over numeral. Generally available up to the grade of Mint State 63. There are several Choice and a few Gem specimens known. Because of their eye appeal, the former R.E. Naftzger and Garrett/Johns Hopkins University specimens are among the two finest.

Famous Four Major 1810 Capped Bust Left Varieties

Mintage: 100,287 Large Date & Large Reverse 5 Scarce

This is the most common variety of the four varieties. Available in all grades up to Mint State 64. Like the 1809/8, there are a few Gem specimens known. Over 200 auction appearances since 1990. About 700-800 coins known.

Small Date, Large Reverse 5 Rare

This variety is considerably rarer than the "Large/Large" (see above). Typically seen in the XF/AU grade. While several Choice Uncirculated specimens have been graded, they are rarely encountered. Still undervalued. About 50 auction appearances in the past decade. Roughly 100 specimens survive.

Small Date, Small Reverse 5 Very Rare

The average grade found for the 1810 "Small/Small" variety is VF/XF, with a few AUs. A Choice About Uncirculated specimen recently sold at public auction for $69,000, with the finest known (PCGS MS62) being offered in 2004 at $175,000.

From about 1940-1985, it was believed only 4-6 of these coins existed, but in the past 15 years, the discovery of 3 or 4 previously unattributed specimens has increased the number of "Small/Small" available to collectors. Including institutional holdings, there are now about 10-15 specimens known. Around a dozen auction appearances in the past 15 years, most of which were repeat visitations by the same 2 or 3 specimens.

Large Date, Small Reverse 5 Prohibitively Rare

Only 4 or 5 known. The 1810 "Large/Small" is one of the greatest rarities of the entire $5 Bust series. Collectors for over 50 years keep thinking another one will appear, but it just hasn't. All known specimens are currently tied-up in major collections or institutions. To my knowledge, the last specimen offered, occurred at the Harry W. Bass Collection Sale in 1999 Mr. Bass had obtained the coin 22 years earlier. Seemingly that's about how frequent they appear for sale. Currently, this coin is on every one of my early $5 Gold client's want lists. Have one? Is it for sale? Please. Pretty please.

Mintage: 99,581 Varieties: 2 Very Scarce

The two varieties are the Small and Large 5 Types. The Small 5 is rarer in Gem Uncirculated than the Large 5 in all other grades. The former R.E.

Naftzger, the Eliasberg/Jon Rogers, and the Higgins/Kettering Gem specimens are the three finest Gems known for the date. About 100 auction appearances for the Small 5 and 50 auction appearances for the Large 5 variety in the past decade. About 150 Large 5's are known with about 300 of the Small 5's.

Mintage: 58,087 Varieties: 2 Scarce

The 1812 is a popular date due to the "War of 1812" theme. Two varieties, Close 5D and Wide 5D. The Close 5D is the scarcer of the two. This date comes well struck, frequently seen with beautiful Mint luster. It is available in all grades. Gems are rare, but are seen on an annual basis. The former Norman Stack/Great Lakes Collection (PCGS MS66) specimen is the finest specimen. Over 150 auction appearances since 1990. About 400-500 exist.

Scot's Obverse/Reich's Reverse Capped Head $5 (1813-1815)

Mintage: 95,428 Varieties: 2 Very Scarce

This is the most common date for the entire Type (and sub-Types) from 1813-1829. This date is most commonly seen in XF/AU. Grades to Mint State 63 also generally available each year. In MS64 they are rare with Gems (MS65) being very rare. The finest known specimen is the Gem Garrett specimen (PCGS graded MS66). It sold at public auction in January, 2005 for $230,000. Despite that lofty price, this date is still a value and affordable in most circulated or lower Mint State grades. The variety with the reverse die having an upright D (in the 5D) with T in States left of the L in Pluribus (in the reverse scroll), is very rare. Over 200 1813 auction appearances since 1990. About 350 coins survive.

Mintage: 15,454 Varieties: 1 Very Rare

This date is rarer than one would think. Just enough appear on the market to keep this date in the reasonable price range. This may not continue much longer. In high grade these coins are exceptionally difficult. Although no 1814/3's have been graded "65", the former Basinelli/Rogers and Bass specimens are among the finest specimens known. Although, it is generally accepted that there is only one variety, some individuals include an 1814/3 with clashed dies versus non-clashed as a variety. This Type exhibits strong, Mint induced clashed (reverse shield) dies. It is most prevalent in and about the ear of Liberty. About 35 auction appearances since the early 1990's. I feel there are only about 75-85 specimens known.

The certified population figures for this date are particularly skewed for the grade of MS62. This is due to a lot of folks desperately seeking an upgrade, and resubmitting the same coin over and over again. A very popular year due to its overdate status.

Mintage: 635 Varieties: 1 Extremely Rare

One of the legendary rarities in not only this series, but in all of American Numismatics. Because of poor provenance tracking, there are a few specimens that continue to be blended in with different pedigree scenario's, creating a situation whereby the exact number known could be off by a coin or two. Nevertheless, it is generally accepted that the total number of specimens known is in the 10-12 range. The finest known specimen is the exquisite Naftzger/1976 ANA Sale specimen (Gem Uncirculated). We can trace six auction records in the past 10 years, with two coins representing 4 of the 6 listed sales (The James A. Stack and Michael Keston specimens).

Early American Gold Half Eagles (1795-1834)

by Larry Hanks

Mintage: 45,588	Varieties: 3	Rare to Very Rare

The three major varieties for this date are the normal date 1818, Wide 5D, 1818 5D/50 (the rarest variety), and the 1818 STATESOF (one word in reverse legend) Types. Although premiums have always been added for the STATESOF Type, my experience is that the normal date 1818 is rarer. Average grade is XF. Choice and Gem specimens are very rare. The finest known specimens include the Norman Stack/Great Lakes Collection 1818 STATESOF in PCGS MS66 and also a 1818 5D/50 in MS66. Only about 35-1818, 50-1818 STATESOF, and about 30 1818 5D/50D are known. Roughly 30 auction appearances for the 1818, 40 appearances for the 1818 STATESOF, and 15 appearances for the 1818 5D/50D varieties in the past 12 years. Fairly valued.

Mintage: 51,723	Varieties: 3	Extremely Rare

The three varieties are: 1819 Wide Date (not confirmed), normal 5 D, 1819 Close Date, and 1819 5D/50. Far less of this date survives in Mint State than for most other dates. From 1995-2003 a total of only six 1819 5D/50 specimens and two 1819 Close Dates were offered at public auction. The finest known example by date is the Virgil Brand/Bass (ANA) specimen. A total of about 15 1819 5/50D's exist, with only roughly 7-10 1819 normal 5D's. Undervalued.

Mintage: 263,806	Varieties: 9	Rare

Average grade is XF/AU with several Choice Uncirculated specimens being known. In dealing with the varieties, most are initially linked to the 2 in the date. The 2 is either Square Base or the rarer Curled Base. Secondary linkage then moves to Large or Small reverse Letters. One of the rarest varieties is the Curled Base 2 with Small Letters. One of the finest is the Gem Uncirculated specimen formerly in the Childs' family collection. I know of two other 1820 Curled Base Half Eagles that rank as Superb Gems: The Jon Rogers collection specimen and the former Sotheby's/Terranova/Barnett/Great Lakes Collection a Deep Mirror Proof Like specimen. The finest Square Base 1820 has been graded Mint State 65. There have been an estimated 30 auction appearances for the Square Base variety in the past 10 years, and about half that number for the Curl Base Type. Fairly valued.

Mintage: 34,641	Varieties: 2	Extremely Rare

There are about 15-18 business strike 1821 specimens known, but most of them are tightly held in long term collections and institutions. The single finest business strike specimen is a magnificent Gem Uncirculated MS66 specimen formerly in the collection of Ted Naftzger (last offered in 1981 at $100,000). Additionally, there are two beautiful Proof specimens known. One is in the Smithsonian Institution, the other in the remaining Bass "core" collection (at ANA headquarters). These two institutions alone hold 4 of the known specimens! From 1994-2004 there were only 4 specimens (3 circ's; 1-MS61) offered for sale in public auction. However, in the late 1990's, a specimen surfaced in New York and was quickly traded. Graded Mint State 63, this coin was determined to have originated from the legendary Lorin G. Parmelee sale in 1890. While prices have moved up sharply on this coin in recent years, it is still one of the most elusive dates to locate despite more than doubling in price in the past 4 years.

Mintage: 17,796	Varieties: 1	3 Known

For over 150 years this coin has been considered one of America's greatest numismatic treasures. Even when there were two specimens possibly available in the 19th and 20th centuries (pedigree's Mickley/Appleton/Woodward/David/Brand/Kosoff-Kaplan/ Eliasberg and the 2nd specimen held by Mr's H.P. Smith/Dunham /Williams/Carter/Lilly Collections), this coin was as sought-after by dealers and collectors, as an 1804 Silver Dollar, Brasher Doubloon, or a 1913 Liberty Nickel. Only it is far rarer than the previous three. Currently, there are only three specimens known (all circulated). The Smithsonian Institution holds two. The remaining sole collectable specimen is incorporated into America's greatest privately owned coin collection. Therefore, it is essentially a unique coin. Why are there only three specimens known, when other dates have similar mintages? Theories abound, but for a logical theory (the secret may lie in the reverse die), pick up a copy of the soon to be released Bass/Dannreuther book on early U.S. Gold varieties. In the final analysis, the 1822 Gold Half Eagle is considered by most Gold coin experts to be America's greatest Gold rarity. It could set an all-time record price (for any coin) if it were to be sold.

Mintage: 14,485	Varieties: 1	Rare

Other than the 1818 and 1820 dates this is the least rare date from 1818-1834. Confirming the mystery of the 1822, this date has a lower mintage than the 1822, but there are probably 50 specimens known. The average grade tends to be XF/AU, with several attractive Choice Uncirculated specimens known. Gems are extremely rare, with perhaps only 2 or 3 known. The Bass specimen is among the finest known.

About 50 auction records for this date in the past 15 years, with no Gems being offered. This date is still undervalued.

Mintage: 17,340	Varieties: 1	Very Rare

It is estimated that there about 18-24 known of this rarity. Several Choice to Gem specimens survive. Highly sought by collectors, circulated examples of the 1824, 1826, and 1827's dates have been particularly difficult to find in the last 15 years. The Garrett/Johns Hopkins University specimen is among the finest known (NGC MS65). In a recent population report, PCGS listed a population of 9 coins being graded MS64. In fact, this represents only 2 different specimens that were sent off a multitude of times (over several years) in order to obtain a MS65 designation. Less than 10 auction appearances in the past dozen years, representing 5 or 6 different specimens. Undervalued!

Mintage: 29,060	Varieties: 1	Extremely Rare

This date is of greater rarity than that of the elusive 1824, 1826, and 1827 dates, particularly in higher Mint State grades. The Bass specimen is a one sided Proof. It is the finest known specimen, followed by a prooflike MS65 coin, that had been graded MS64. Unfortunately, the population reports list both an MS64 and -65, but there is only one coin representing both grades. Only about 15 specimens are known with about a dozen auction records in the past 12 years, representing about 5-6 different coins. Typically found circulated. High circulated grades frequently retain highly reflective or prooflike surfaces. Undervalued!

Mintage: Included above	Varieties: 1	2 Known

Until the discovery of the Nathan Kaufmann specimen in 1978, this coin had been considered unique for over 100 years. It is one of the great legendary rarities in American numismatics. Fortunately for future collectors, both of the known specimens are in collections, and not in institutions!

The finer of the two is the Choice Eliasberg specimen, which has a DMPL appearance, sharp 4 undertype numeral, and gorgeous color. It traces its pedigree from Cohen (1875), Earle/Clapp/Eliasberg (1982 @ $220,000). This coin has been called both a Proof and a Mint State coin in the past. It is currently held in America's greatest coin collection.

The Kaufmann specimen is an eye appealing NGC AU50 with sharp 4 numeral undertype; it has even circulation wear, with rather robust underlying prooflike surfaces. There are two tiny inconsequential rim ticks. Its pedigree is traced to 19th century banker N.M. Kaufmann/Rarcoa sale 1978

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both report the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight seen. The coins may be certified or "Raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGHT-UNSEEN market; such Bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid, but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

Like the 1818/7-D Buffalo, 1918/7-S Quarter, 1817/4 Bust Half Dollar, and 1814/3, 1825/1 Half Eagles, the 1825/4 additionally receives strong attention from those individuals that collect only overdate coinage. With just two specimens known, this is the rarest overdate of all United States coinage. Since the Earle sale in 1912, collectors have had just 4 opportunities to purchase either 1825/4 in a public auction sale.

Mintage: 18,069 Varieties: 2 Very Rare

The date is very similar in rarity to that of the 1824 and 1827 years. There are about 20-25 specimens known. The average grade is XF/AU with several Choice and Gem specimens known. Proofs exist. All are included in collections or institutions. The two varieties are Normal 13th Star, Small Letters vs. Low 13th Star with Large Letters. The Small Letters variety is excessively rare. About a dozen auction records in the past 10 years. Undervalued in all grades.

Mintage: 24,913 Varieties: 1 Very Rare

Similar to the 1824 and 1826 dates, with roughly 18-24 specimens known. There are several Choice or Gem specimens in existence. The Floyd Starr specimen is most likely the finest known example. Proofs exist. About a dozen auction records in the past 10 years (mostly Unc's). Circulated specimens have rarely been offered in the past 15 years. Undervalued in all grades.

Mintage: 28,029 Varieties: 2 Extremely Rare

The 1828 date is one of the rarest dates in the entire $5 Bust series. There are only about 10-12 specimens known of both varieties, with perhaps only 6-8 available to collectors. There have been 7 auction records for this date in the past 11 years, with about half being Mint State. Proofs exist. Greatly undervalued.

Mintage: included above Varieties: 2 Prohibitively Rare

The 1828/7 overdate is one of the great rarities for the entire series. Only 5 or 6 are known. The reverse of 1828 variety is unique (versus reverse of 1826 variety). The finest known specimen is most likely from the Dr. Suros'/Rogers' collections (NGC MS64). Four auction records in the past decade. All specimens are now held in major collections or institutions.

1829 Capped Bust Left, Type 1- Large Planchet

Mintage: 57,742 Varieties: 1 Prohibitively Rare

Both varieties (Large and Small Planchet) of the 1829 Bust $5 Half Eagles are legendary Gold rarities. There are seven specimens known of the Type one 1829. The finest is the Virgil Brand/Bass Gem one sided Proof. Six of the seven specimens are classified as Choice to Gem quality. Currently, there is one specimen (NGC MS66) on the market; all other specimens are held in institutions or collections. Three auction appearances in the past 20 years.

Kneass's Modified Capped Head Left Design (1829-1834)

The short series, Small Planchet "Fat Head" Bust $5 Gold, incorporated Kneass's famous Closed Collar design that first imparted reeding on these coins. All dates are very rare to extremely rare. Furthermore, because they are considered a separate Type, they receive considerable demand from Type coin collectors, as well as Gold specialists.

Mintage: Included in 1829 Varieties: 1 Extremely Rare

Extremely rare with just 8-10 pieces known. The Bass and Smithsonian, Institution specimens are Gem proof examples. The former is the Omaha City Library Collection Gem Mint State specimen. Only two auction appearances in the past ten years. A few circulated grades are known. Don't pass up a chance to buy one.

Mintage: 126,351 Varieties: 2 Very Rare

The two varieties are the Small and Large 5D Types. The Large 5D is somewhat rarer. This coin is typically found in XF/AU. Estimated 45 coins known of both varieties. They are a few Choice and Gem specimens known for each variety. About 25 auction appearances in the past 15 years representing about 10-12 different specimens.

Mintage: 140,591 Varieties: 2 Very Rare

Similar to the 1830. The two varieties are also the Small and Large 5D. The Small 5D is rarer than the Large 5D. This date is typically found in AU. Fewer Mint State coins are known for this date. The two finest known specimens are the magnificent Eliasberg (PCGS Mint State 67) and the Superb Gem prooflike Kaufmann/Rogers specimen. About a dozen auction appearances in the past decade (only three Uncirculated offerings). Estimated 20-25 coins known for both varieties.

1832 Modified Capped Head Left, 12 and 13 Stars

Mintage: 157,487 Varieties: 2 Rare

The 1832 has two distinct varieties. They are the 1832 with Square Base 2 and 13 Stars of which I estimate there are about 50 examples known. The 13 Star variety generally is found in XF/AU. Both PCGS and NGC population reports list a number of Mint State-62-63, and 64 coins. Once again, this represents two or three specimens that have been tried over and over again for a higher certified grade. About twenty auction appearances in the past 10 years.

The second variety found in 1832 is the famous 1832 Curved Base 2 with blundered 12 Stars obverse. This is one of the rarest coins in U.S. numismatics. Because of some confusion in pedigrees, there are between 4-5 specimens known. Whatever the true number, think 1913 Liberty Nickel rarity! There have been 2 auction records in the past 15 years. An XF sold 5/98 at $159,500 (the Varner specimen). The finest known specimen is the Omaha City Library (Bryon Reed) NGC MS63 specimen which fetched $297,000 in October 1998. Other specimens include: the Smithsonian Institution, Bass, and Granberg examples, for a total of five specimens. The H.O. Granberg specimen is supposedly a Mint State example, but has not been seen in decades.

Mintage: 193,360 Varieties: 3 Very Rare

The two major varieties are Small and Large Date styles. The Small Date is rarer. Estimate of about 50 coins known of both varieties. About 15 auction appearances in the past ten years for the Large Date, and about 8-10 for the Small Date. A couple of Gems are known of each variety. The finest known is a remarkable PCGS Proof 67 specimen that recently sold for close to $1 million.

Mintage: 50,141 Varieties: 4 Very Rare

The two major varieties of this coin are the Plain 4 and Crosslet 4 design. Close attention should be made of the two sub-varieties of the Crosslet and Plain 4's, as they are far rarer. These are identified in the Bass/Dannreuther book. Roughly 25 auction appearances for the Crosslet 4. Less than 10 appearances in the past decade for the Plain 4 variety. Estimated 18 coins known for the Crosslet and about 24 for the Plain 4.

This concludes a brief date/variety analysis of $5 Bust Gold (1795-1834). For those of you interested in this series I would encourage you to visit the American Numismatic Association in Colorado Springs, CO., to view the Harry W. Bass, Jr., reference collection.

BU ROLLS

The following prices are typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise interior rolls are worth less than listed prices and "gem" rolls often bring more. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark—these bring lower prices. "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury series, "gem, full" rolls are worth more than listed prices—particularly the pre-1941 issues. Washington rolls—dull or "put together"—bring lower prices. Gem roll strike-Walking Liberty rolls—particularly the 5-mint issues! are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT. Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN.

MS 70

"You'll love this stuff!"

Industrial Strength Coin Brightener

Proven for years as the INDUSTRY STANDARD used by professional numismatist and collectors alike world wide to restore mint state and proof coins to the bright - white brilliance that they exhibited the day they were minted! Developed by renowned chemist Gayl Swinehart, PhD.

Contains No Acids or Solvents Environmentally Friendly

Safe on Gold - Silver - Nickel
Copper - Bronze - Brass

WILL NOT GIVE YOUR COINS THAT "DIPPED" LOOK

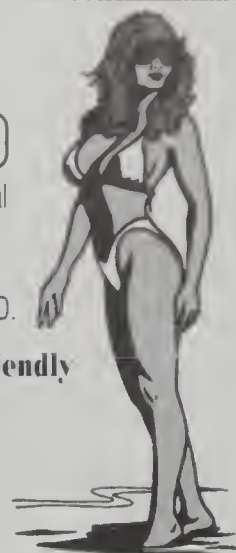

MS70 does not change the color of your coin but does remove the tarnish and surface contamination allowing the natural beauty of the original surface to show as bright as the day your coin left the mint. Surface contamination is p.v.c., tarnish, fog, oil, dirt, ect. MS70 is a blend of industrial detergents and surfactants designed to remove surface contamination from metal without disturbing the metal surface itself.

When MS70 is applied the surfactants (wetting agents) first break the surface tension of the contamination then the detergents in MS70 go to work as you "work" the coin as directed on the label instructions by suspending the contamination so that it may be rinsed away leaving a bright metal surface as undisturbed as the day the coin was made.

MS70 IS AVAILABLE IN MOST COIN SHOPS OR YOU MAY ORDER BY CALLING WITH VISA OR MASTERCARD OR SEND $7.95 PLUS $3 POSTAGE TO:

EARLY $10 GOLD 1795-1804

By Neil Berman and Silvano DiGenova

For rare coin collectors seeking both challenge and reward, Early United States Gold coins dated 1795 to 1804 are an ideal choice of specialty. Early Gold coin mintages are remarkably small and the survival rates in all grades are low, making these beautiful coins not only challenging to collect, but also potentially highly rewarding as an investment. Sophisticated collectors often become interested in early Gold coins because these coins are fascinating artifacts from our nation's infancy, and tangible pieces of history, attesting to the development of our nation's system of money.

While collectors have long known that all early United States Gold coins are rare, recent analysis by noted authority John Dannruther indicates that these coins are even rarer than was originally thought. The mintage figures in Mr. Dannruther's yet unpublished study differ in some instances from the mintage figures in "A Guide Book Of United States Coins," by R.S. Yeoman. When published, Mr. Dannruther's study rates to become a standard reference on the topic.

The basis of the population figures in this article is the combined number reported certified by the Professional Coin Grading Service (PCGS) and Numismatic Guaranty Corporation (NGC). However, in the opinion of the authors, actual populations may be as much as 20% different than published figures in some cases, taking into consideration multiple submissions of the same coin(s). In several cases we have made some estimates where we feel the published information does not give as accurate a perspective on the true population. This is due to the services not recognizing certain varieties in the beginning of the population reports and then adding them later. Also in the case of the 1803, besides the population report variety changes, it is with near certainty that virtually all the Large Star reverse Tens certified are actually the Large Star with 14 Star reverse.

Following is a date-by-date analysis of early Eagles to use as an aid in making informed buying decisions in this challenging and rewarding series.

Eagles 1795-1804

Eagles are the largest denomination struck of early Gold, and the second denomination of Gold coins manufactured at the new Mint. The first Eagles were struck at the Philadelphia Mint on September 22nd, 1795.

All early Eagles are thirty-three millimeters in diameter, weight 270 grains of .9167 fine Gold alloyed with .0833 Copper and Silver, have a reeded edge and were designed by Robert Scot except where otherwise mentioned. In those cases the reverse may have been engraved by John Gardner. They come in two types, with both the Small Eagle reverse and with a Large Eagle reverse. A total of 132,500 plus were minted between the two types, with 3,213 examples certified in all grades, a total survival rate of two percent for the entire series, of which 1,550 graded Uncirculated. There are only twenty-five Gem Uncirculated coins reported of all dates, or less than two hundredths of one percent.

The Small Eagle reverse was made with four major varieties, those being the 1795 13 Leaves and 9 Leaves, the 1796 with 11 Leaves and the 1797. There is just a total mintage of somewhere between 13,344 and 15,251 coins, of which 524 reported certified in all grades, which is a survival rate of nearly four percent, with 154 graded Uncirculated by both grading services. I would be surprised if there really are that many coins in such a high grade, as widely known coins of this value and subjectivity are frequently regraded and often the tags are not returned. We believe a 20% or more over statement by the population reports is certainly possible.

The Large Eagle reverse comes in eleven date/variety combinations, with a total mintage of approximately one hundred nineteen thousand, and a total of 2,689 examples reported certified in all grades, of which over 1,102 are called Uncirculated. There are also the Proofs of 1804 with a Plain 4 that were struck thirty years after the date on the coin. As stated before, we certainly feel the population data is considerably overstated. Also worth noting that unlike series such as Morgan Dollars or $20 Saint-Gaudens, the majority of the known coins have been graded with the likelihood of undiscovered hoards next to nil.

Draped Bust Small Eagle Type

Draped Bust Small Eagle Type 1795-1797

1795 Small Eagle 13 Leaves: With a mintage estimated at just over five thousand from two pairs of dies, this is the most "common" of the Small Eagle Type by a factor of more than two over the next "common" date 1796. With 327 graded we have a relatively large survival rate, probably because this was the first year of the Type and many must have been saved as souvenirs, accounting for the availability in most grades. The grading services have graded 105 as Uncirculated and four as MS65 or better. Certainly duplication exists. Being the first year Type and the most available of the Type, this is always sought after and fully priced within the series. Scarce in Circulated grades, rare in Mint State.

1795 Small Eagle 9 Leaves: With an estimated mintage of only five hundred coins, this is the rarest date of the Type. There are 21 examples reported certified in all grades, which is undoubtedly many of the same coins being resubmitted to the grading service. I doubt there are even the fifteen that Dannreuther seems to think survived. Twelve examples are reported certified in Uncirculated, also likely to be overstated. The population shows four coins in MS63. We are aware of only two with the possibility of three. The 9 Leaf $10 in all grades is far undervalued relative to the 1795 13 Leaf and most of the series. Very rare in all grades, extremely rare in Mint State.

1796 Small Eagle 11 Leaves: With a mintage of just over 4,100, including 125 examples reported certified in all grades makes this the second most "common" date of the Type. The certified mintages match Dannreuther's estimates. PCGS and NGC have reported 25 Uncirculated survivors. Underrated relative to the 1795 13 Leaf. Rare in all grades, very rare in Mint State.

1797 Small Eagle: With a mintage of 3,650, there are only 51 certified in all grades and just 12 in Uncirculated grades. Of the Uncirculated coins, none appear to be higher than MS62. Undervalued in all grades. Rare in all grades, exceedingly rare in Mint condition.

Draped Bust Large or Heraldic Eagle 1797-1804

1797 Large Eagle: With a mintage of almost eleven thousand in three die variations, the 1797 is the fourth most "common" date of the Type. There are 305 certified in all grades of which 71 are reported to be Uncirculated. Scarce and very popular as it is the first year of the new type as a result it tends to be more fully priced than the 1803 or very underrated 1800 both of greater rarity when evaluated by year and variety. Scarce in all grades, rare in Mint State.

1798/7 9X4 Stars Obverse: Overdate with nine Stars to the left of Liberty and four to the right. With the obverse of 1795, reverse by John Gardner, and an estimated mintage of nine hundred coins, of which 61 are certified in all grades, only ten of those are Uncirculated. Very rare in all grades. Exceedingly rare in Mint State. Undervalued relative to its rarity, especially in Mint State.

1798/7 7X6 Stars Obverse: Overdate with seven Stars to the left of Liberty and six to the right. With the obverse of 1795, reverse by John Gardener, and an estimated mintage of only eight hundred forty-two. Since there are only 11 coins certified in all grades, Akers calls this the rarest date of the Type, and the certified numbers bear him out. Only four Uncirculated coins make this the second rarest in the series and the rarest of the major "Red Book" varieties. In general undervalued, however, always fairly expensive and only necessary to the advanced collector.

1799 Small Stars Obverse: This variety is from seven pairs of dies with an estimated mintage of 7,500. As both services did not designate this variety from the beginning, the population figures do not illustrate an accurate picture. We know that 939 total 1799 have been graded, of which 407 are Uncirculated. In examining several criteria including the following, approximately 1/3 of the 1799 $10 were Small Stars from the time NGC started making the designation. Also examining Jeff Garrett and John Dannreuther's book on auction records, 36% are Small Stars and 64% Large Stars. It is this ratio that was used to approximate the population report. The proportion of Uncirculated was 30% and therefore we approximated 122 Small Stars in Uncirculated. The 1799 Small Stars, although nearly twice as rare as the Large Stars is still the third most common of all early Tens but at little or no premium over the 1799 Large Stars or 1801, it still presents a very good value and is relatively rare in Mint State.

1799 Large Stars: With a mintage of at least 30,000 from two pairs of dies, this date is the second most "common" date. We estimate 600 or so in all grades and 285 in Uncirculated, clearly making it the second most common after the 1801. There are eight Gems reported with five or more not designated as Large or Small Stars, probably 2/3 are Large Stars or more. The most of any date of the Type, the 1799 is more popular than the 1801 because of the 18th century date. Since all early Tens are scarce in all grades, the 1799 is a popular Type coin for the collector. Scarce in Mint State and rare in Gem. Available in Circulated grades.

1800: With a stated mintage of 6,000 from one pair of dies, it has only 198 examples certified in all grades and just 77 in Mint State. Very rare and underrated in all grades. Generally sells for less than the 1797 although far rarer. MS63 and better specimens should trade for far more.

1801: With a mintage of about 44,500, the 1801 has the largest mintage of the Type, and in fact, the early $10 series. Seven hundred sixty seven examples certified, of which 358 were graded Uncirculated which while not very likely does indicate that this is the most "common" of the Type. Available readily in all grades except Gem, which of course barely exist. Very popular as the Type coin for the series. Rarer than the 1799 in high grades of MS64 and up.

1803 Small Stars Reverse: The 1803 Small Star reverse has a mintage of 10,800 of which we estimate 249 are certified in all grades and 97 in Mint State grades. Far scarcer than either 1799 and the 1801, this date and variety should carry a considerable premium to those especially in Uncirculated grades.

1803 13 Large Stars Reverse: With a total estimated mintage of only 1,200 from four pairs of dies, we estimate only about four coins are graded in all grades (or less) only one Mint State coin can actually be identified through the last ten years of auctions. This is the rarest of the varieties listed here. Not well known in the marketplace, this coin is highly sought-after by several specialists. Hard to determine an accurate current value, however, what is certain is that we would pay far in excess of any current price guide!

1803 14 Large Star Reverse: The extra star in the clouds, with a total estimated mintage of only 3,000 coins, we estimate 67 of the total 319 1803 graded in all varieties are the 14 Star Reverse. This variety was first identified by Harry Bass and, although rare, many more Large Star Reverses are actually the 14 Star as the Small Star is easily worn away or obscured by bag marks. Very popular and rare. Probably priced accurately in today's market.

1804: All are the Crosslet 4 variety with Small Stars, like the 1803, except the handful of Proofs that were struck in 1834 or 1835, depending on who you ask. All three of the known Proofs have a Plain 4 with Medium Stars, according to Dannreuther. A total mintage of 3,700 business strikes of the Crosslet 4 variety, with only 89 examples surviving certified in all grades. There are 37 certified Uncirculated specimens, but no Gems. Very scarce last year of issue. Also popular because of the profound numismatic year of 1804. Additionally this is notoriously weakly struck. Some examples as high as Mint State have much of the facial and hair detail missing. Very rare in Mint State, especially well struck. Rare in Circulated grades as well as generally under valued.

BU ROLLS

Remember the prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved in the Lincoln series spotted or otherwise interior rolls are worth less than listed prices and 'gem' rolls often bring more. In the Mercury series some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark these bring lower prices, 'gem' full steps rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury series 'gem' full steps rolls are worth more than listed prices particularly the pre-1955 issues. Washington rolls - dollar or 'pat' together - bring lower prices. Gem full strike Walking Liberty rolls particularly the S-mint issues are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT. Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN.

A Fantasy Starter Set Of Carson City Coins

PART ONE

By Rusty Goe

•The Silver Issues•

Perched atop the pantheon of prized numismatic pieces comprising a complete set of coins issued by the Carson City Mint is the Unique 1873-CC Without Arrows Dime. All of the other 110 representatives in this prestigious collection pale in comparison in terms of scarcity and stature: a one and only in any collectible field commands respect. However if you remove this headliner to inspect the supporting cast of coins with a "CC" mintmark, you will be swept off your feet by the depth of rarity and desirability encountered. With the exception of certain numismatic collector's items holding unofficial status or steeped in controversy such as 1913 Liberty Nickels, 1894-S Barber Dimes and 1933 Double Eagles, the elite coins struck at the Carson City Mint stand tall next to all other regular issue U.S. coins.

For decades, courageous collectors have boldly attempted to acquire at least one example of each of the 111 different date and denomination combinations struck at Carson City during its coinage operation years of 1870 to 1893. Throughout the 20th century, only Louis Eliasberg, Sr., reached the summit; and in the early years of the 21st century, the owner of the Battle Born collection equaled the feat. Like Joe DiMaggio's 56 game hitting streak or Cy Young's lifetime 511 wins, obtain the complete set of "CC" coins is a hallowed accomplishment. A frequently asked question from aspiring "CC" enthusiasts is, "Where do I begin?" The answer is as simple as the advice offered anyone contemplating a long journey; with the first step. This first step of course, varies from collector to collector, usually depending on budgetary restraints. But monetary considerations aside, suppose you were the George Steinbrenner of numismatics and could assemble the finest collection money could buy. You would ignore second, third and fourth tier choices and bulldog your way straight to the upper echelon of possibilities. Mr. Steinbrenner does not need to fantasize about his dream team he just goes out and buys it. In this article, you can visualize yourself using the boss' checkbook and build the firmest foundation imaginable on your way to assembling a complete set of "CC" coins.

When selecting all-time greatest teams in baseball, fantasy team managers often divide their players into separate categories, one for hitters, and one for pitchers. Likewise, it seems apropos to split a dream set of Carson City coins between the two metal categories. So, Silver will be in the spotlight this month. Gold will glitter in a future article.

In real life, even the barons of baseball fail to acquire every star player. Ted Williams after all, wore a Boston Red Sox uniform during an era when cries of "Break up the Yankees" resounded across the nation. Similarly, because the group of coins selected for the fantasy set profiled here focuses on those issues between 1870 and 1873, a few stellar stand-outs such as the 1876-CC 20-Cent piece and 1874-CC Liberty Seated Dime, will be conspicuously missing. As enticing as a few of these would be, concentrating on the first four years of operations at the Carson City Mint provides the highest relative density of desirable dates. Anyone fortunate enough to lay a foundation consisting of the coveted coins from Carson City's primal years will certainly possess sufficient incentive necessary to complete the set.

Beginning in February of 1870 and continuing through 1873, the Carson City Mint produced 19 date/denomination/variety combinations. Any local could have purchased one example of each coin directly from the Mint during this four year period; assuming of course, the Without Arrows issues from 1873 were not held back in lieu of pending orders from Philadelphia. A grand total of $9.15 would have exchanged hands between the Mint and the souvenir collector; and this would have included an example of the Trade Dollar released in 1873, designed primarily for commercial use in the Orient. Following is a brief overview of what the local would have received for his $9.15, including mintages, reflections, and survival estimates for the individual coins. Survival estimates do not account for all the damaged examples in existence with problems varying from graffiti, holes, and polishing, to bends, rim gouges, and harsh cleanings. While such pieces may be used as fillers, most collectors prefer problem-free specimens in grades AG and above. Please note that surviving population figures are for the highest quantity estimates based on a variable of approximately 10% to 15%. Several estimates have been slightly adjusted since the publication of The Mint On Carson Street.

Dimes

1871-CC, Mintage 20,100, Population In All Grades: 100

Difficult to locate in XF or finer, with only a handful of BU specimens known.

Choice AU examples are worth $40,000 to $45,000. In MS-65, be prepared to pay over $200,000 and in MS-61 to MS-63, prices start at $100,000.

1872-CC, Mintage 24,000* (*Some reports say 35,480),
Population In All Grades: 135

Only one Uncirculated example known (PCGS MS-63); and only two AU specimens, (PCGS AU-58, NGC AU-55). At least a dozen desirable VF and XF examples exist. Undervalued in all grades. The finest known coin is easily worth $140,000.

1873-CC Without Arrows, Mintage 12,400, Population In All Grades: 1

Carson City royalty. In competition for rarest and most desirable coin in U.S. history, especially considering it was Minted as a regular issue. Only known specimen graded PCGS MS-65. A bargain at anything less than $3 million.

1873-CC With Arrows, Mintage 18,791, Population In All Grades: 80

Majority of survivors in grades below VF, with only two Uncirculated specimens known (both MS-65s). The one lone AU-58 example and a solitary AU-50 piece will arouse spirited competition if released on the market. Minimum price for one of the MS-65s is $250,000.

Quarters

1870-CC, Mintage 8,340, Population In All Grades: 50

One of the most respected Seated Liberty coins of all time. Only one Uncirculated specimen known (NGC MS-64, Eliasberg), worth approximately $500,000. Two AU-55 pieces, one PCGS, one NGC, tower above all other Circulated specimens, with the PCGS coin deserving of AU-58. Choice Fine, Very Fine, and XF examples are highly prized and command hefty premiums.

1871-CC, Mintage 10,890, Population In All Grades: 50

Fewer certified examples than the 1870-CC, with just three Uncirculated specimens known. The two MS-65s, one PCGS, one NGC, are monsters, and the lone MS-64 is a knockout. Starting price for a Mint State piece is $150,000, with the two MS-65s easily topping the $250,000 mark. Several attractive AU pieces contend for top honors in the Circulated category, with price tags in the $50,000 to $60,000 range. Collectors covet any Choice Fine to Very Fine examples that might appear and are willing to pay strong money for them.

1872-CC, Mintage 9,100* (*Some reports say 22,850),
Population In All Grades: 70

Appreciated by specialists, but not given due respect by the general crowd of numismatists. An NGC MS-66 high-powered piece from the Eliasberg sale stands alone atop the condition census, with just an attractive PCGS MS-62 example accounting for the only other Uncirculated specimen of this date. An estimated value for the MS-66 coin is $300,000, with the MS-62 piece approaching the $100,000 mark. Desirable examples in Fine, Very Fine, and XF appear occasionally, usually undervalued. Either of the two known AU specimens represent tremendous opportunities if they should ever be offered at recent price levels.

1873-CC Without Arrows, Mintage 4,000, Population In All Grades: 5

Second only to the counterpart Dime from the same year and variety in rarity and prestige. Collectors acknowledged its value in 1975 when the James Stack specimen realized $80,000 and then again in 1990 when the same coin brought $341,000. Surprisingly, no subsequent sales of this cherished date have equaled or surpassed that benchmark price established 15 years ago. Only three specimens are known in Uncirculated condition, each having been individually included in three landmark collections, Eliasberg, Stack, and Norweb. All three are destined to break the $1 million barrier. Two Circulated examples, one graded NGC XF-40, the other uncertified, round out the limited population, with starting prices in the $150,000 range.

1873-CC With Arrows, Mintage 12,462, Population In All Grades: 45

Slightly scarcer than the 1870-CC and 1871-CC Quarters, but for some reason not commanding as much respect. Only two Uncirculated specimens are known; the Norweb, graded NGC MS-65 and the Eliasberg, graded PCGS MS-65. Both display awesome eye appeal. A small offering of AU examples, maybe two or three, tops the Circulated ranks, with a smattering of Choice VF and XF pieces. Minimum price for one of the Mint State coins is approximately $175,000. So far, AU examples seem to be undervalued at any price below $40,000, and collectors should prepare to pay premiums for desirable pieces in lower Circulated grades.

Half Dollars

1870-CC, Mintage 54,617, Population In All Grades: 160

Endowed with the allure of Carson City's first year of coinage operations 1870-CC halves command respect among "CC" enthusiasts. While paling in comparison to the rarity of Quarters and $3 Gold denominations from this year the Halves are considerably scarcer than the 1870-CC Seated Liberty Dollars. If not for a hoard or 90 pieces that surfaced in the 1980s this would easily be the rarest date in the "CC" Half Dollar series; instead it ranks third behind the 1874-CC and

The CDN MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT is a supplement to the weekly COIN DEALER Newsletter (Greysheet); both report the national Dealer-to-Dealer wholesale coin market, monitoring all possible transactions and offers to buy and sell coins sight seen. The coins may be certified or "Raw" (uncertified), but the grading MUST ADHERE to the current leading standard. Bids reported also consider activity in the certified SIGHT-UNSEEN market; such Bids may include consideration of all costs attendant to certification for a particular service. Bids for a "Raw" coin may be higher or lower than for a certified specimen due to current market conditions. The CDN may not change Bid just because a dealer lowers his Bid, but will be strongly influenced by sells which are lower than current Bid/Ask levels. The weekly CERTIFIED COIN DEALER Newsletter (Bluesheet) provides Bids for certified coins only.

1878-CC. Only two Uncirculated examples are known, both graded MS-62, with the Gardner specimen clearly the superior piece. Currently, these coins are valued at approximately $150,000 to $200,000. A lone AU-55 piece graded by PCGS ranks next in the condition census and is worth approximately $40,000. Several other AU coins are in the $25,000 to $32,000 range. Premiums for all accurately graded examples in XF and below are to be expected.

1871-CC, Mintage 139,950* (*Some reports say 153,950),
Population In All Grades: 300

Respected by the specialists, but underrated in the mainstream, this date is extremely rare in Mint State grades. A single PCGS MS-64 heads the condition rankings, with only a few other Uncirculated pieces currently certified. Pedigreed to the esteemed Reed Hawn collection, the MS-64 specimen is valued at approximately $100,000. Among the few remaining Mint State specimens, two graded MS-62 are easily worth $30,000. A generous quantity of AU specimens have been certified, some lacking eye appeal due to cleaning. High end AU specimens especially with semi-prooflike surfaces are worthy of big premiums, and all problem-free examples in lesser grades can easily command strong interest.

1872-CC, Mintage 272,000* (*Some reports say 257,000),
Population In All Grades: 450

Meltdowns eliminated massive quantities of these and other "CC" mintmarked Half Dollars creating genuine rarities. While not as scarce as several other dates in the series, the 1872-CC would be considered one of the keys in most U.S. coin categories. Currently, only a handful of Mint State specimens are known, with two MS-63 pieces leading the way. Values for the top two specimens are approximately $50,000, with minimum prices for Uncirculated examples starting at $15,000. A couple Borderline Uncirculated pieces in AU-58 are worth approximately $10,000. Problem-free Circulated examples are undervalued.

1873-CC Without Arrows, Mintage 122,500,
Population In All Grades: 400

Having the distinction of being the only affordable Without Arrows "CC" coin from 1873, this date becomes a challenge in its own right in grades above AU. A particular specimen appearing in the famed Garrett sale in 1979 raised the house when it realized $30,000. Years later, having been certified by PCGS as an MS-66, it sold for $69,000 in 1999. Subsequently upgraded to MS-67, the coin changed hands in 2004 for approximately $100,000, and suddenly the asking price jumped to $150,000. Grading service population figures are slightly skewed due to resubmissions and crossovers, and when finally reconciled, combined Mint State totals for PCGS and NGC will probably be one example in every grade from MS-60 through MS-67, with possibly two each in the MS-62 and MS-64 category. This is an undervalued date in all grades.

1873-CC With Arrows, Mintage 214,560, Population In All Grades: 750

Probably the most common issue in this fantasy set (with the exception of 1873-CC Trade Dollars), but still deserving to be included, if for no other reason than its historic date. Possibly as many as 30 Uncirculated examples survive, the highest being a lone MS-66 piece. Demand outside the sphere of "CC" enthusiasts is triggered by general type set collectors desiring a Carson City coin to fill their With Arrows slot. As a result, prices parallel those of the Without Arrows variety, especially in Circulated grades. Prepare to pay premiums for examples in grades from VF through MS-63. The finest known example is easily worth double what an MS-65 might bring.

Seated Liberty Silver Dollars

1870-CC, Mintage 12,462* (*Some reports say 11,758),
Population In All Grades: 700

Recognized as the first coin issued from the Carson City Mint and always popular with 10-piece "CC" Type set collectors because of its availability compared to the other three dates in the series. A small percentage displays medium to Deep Prooflike Mirror surfaces, with bold strikes. A magnificent example graded MS-64 by PCGS towers above the condition census, with possibly 30 Mint State pieces extant. While this MS-64 has never tested the auction market, it could easily realize $100,000 in spirited Bidding. A few of the MS-63 specimens are worth approximately $35,000 to $40,000. However, some of the Mint State pieces lack eye appeal and will disappoint most collectors. An exceptional AU-58 specimen possesses superior attributes and would cause most specialists to be envious especially if compared to several of the inferior Mint State coins. While this AU-58 example is truly worth $16,000 to $20,000, other lower grade AU pieces are available for $3,500 to $6,500. Coins with problem cleanings should be significantly discounted. Choice examples in grades Good through XF are bargains today.

1871-CC Mintage 1,376 Population In All Grades: 135

Although still extremely scarce, far more examples of this date exist than the mintage figure and typical attrition rate for early Carson City issues suggests. Anomalies aside, this is still one of the rarest and most desirable coins struck at any U.S. Mint, especially in Uncirculated condition. Of the four known Mint State specimens, two are graded MS-64, with the other two in MS-61. Both MS-64 pieces were originally graded MS-63, but so-called grade deflation plays no part in their values since regardless of grades assigned they are worth approximately $250,000 each. The PCGS MS-64 specimen, formally in the James Stack collection, slightly edges out the NGC MS-64 from the Richmond collection in terms of eye appeal. Values for the MS-61 pieces approach the $120,000 level. A relatively inordinate quantity of AU examples exist, many of which fall flat in the luster department due to cleanings. High end AU specimens are worth between $40,000 and $60,000, with others ranging from $18,000 to $30,000. Problem-free Circulated coins, especially in grades of Fine and Very Fine are in great demand.

1872-CC, Mintage 3,150, Population In All Grades: 300

Though not as plentiful as the 1870-CC Dollars, collectors will have a larger selection of 1872-CCs to choose from in comparison to many of the date and denomination combinations from the Carson Mint's early years; unless an Uncirculated example is desired, since no more than 25 probably survived. Combined population figures from PCGS and NGC suggest 24 Mint State examples exist, but due to resubmissions and crossovers, this number is probably exaggerated. A spectacular MS-65 example graded by PCGS captures top honors, while a couple Choice MS-64 pieces graded by NGC vie for second place. Either MS-64 is valued at approximately $125,000, with the MS-65 specimen easily worth double that. Two lovely examples graded MS-63 could realistically bring $100,000 each. Prices taper off as you descend the grading ladder, with MS-60s through MS-62s ranging in value from $20,000 to $40,000. Eye appeal is a major evaluation factor, especially in the Circulated grades. Choice AU specimens can add significant premiums, while unattractive coins must be discounted. Examples in Good through VF are worthy of strong Bids if problem-free.

1873-CC, Mintage 2,300, Population In All Grades: 100

Coinage Act legislation, extinction of the standard Silver Dollar series, and subsequent meltings, contributed to this date becoming a heralded rarity. Possible five or six Uncirculated examples have survived, one of which is graded MS-65 by PCGS and valued in the neighborhood of $500,000, although its relative rarity could substantially increase the price tag. Another 1873-CC Silver Dollar is listed on NGC's Census report in MS-64 and depending on what it looks like, could be worth between $235,000 and $300,000. Several lower grade Mint State specimens complete the population profile and are valued at approximately $100,000 each. A couple of AU-58 pieces, one PCGS and one NGC graded, possess remarkable eye appeal, and are equal in value to the MS-61 specimens, if not slightly more. Next in line are a handful of midrange AU examples, worth between $30,000 and $45,000. Occasionally a high end XF-45 coin will realize a hefty premium, if visually appealing. Though not considerably scarcer in lower Circulated grades than 1871-CC Dollars, premiums are often double or triple due to the lore established through the years.

1873-CC Trade Dollar, Mintage 124,500,
Population In All Grades: 1,000

Saved in far greater quantities than any other issue in this fantasy starter set of "CC" coins, the 1873-CC Trade Dollar makes the cut, if for nothing else than its historic date. As many as 63 examples have been certified by PCGS and NGC in Mint State grades thus far and in all likelihood, there will be no significant increase in the future. Demonstrating the respect this issue commands in numismatic circles, MS-65 specimens, with probably no more than three extant, are valued at $100,000 or more. A monster PCGS MS-64 piece recently brought $80,500 in a September auction. Quality MS-63 examples can realize $30,000 and fortunately for budget-minded collectors, MS-61 to MS-62 pieces are sometimes available for less than $9,000. Prepare to pay big premiums for Choice AU-58 specimens. Problem-free Circulated coins in grades below AU are bargains today.

Everyone can dream and this truly remarkable group of 19 Silver coins has captured the imagination of many collectors for decades. In part two, Gold coins struck at the Carson City Mint from 1870 to 1873 will be reviewed.

BU ROLLS

The following prices are for typical rolls of the dates involved. In the Lincoln series, spotted or otherwise interior rolls are worth less than listed prices and "gem" rolls often bring more. In the Jefferson series, some of the rolls in the late 50's tend to be dark - these bring lower prices; "gem, full steps" rolls (when available) bring higher prices. In the Mercury series, "gem, full" bands rolls are worth more than listed prices - particularly the pre-1941 issues. Washington rolls - dull or "put together," bring lower prices. Gem full strike Walking Liberty rolls - particularly the S-mint issues are worth more than listed prices. MS-65 singles may be found in the MONTHLY SUPPLEMENT. Mercury & Walker singles are in the CDN.

Small Change. Big Rewards.

The American Numismatic Association welcomes numismatists of all ages, beginners and experts alike. The ANA can provide you with the knowledge you need to be a confident collector.

8 GREAT REASONS TO JOIN TODAY!

1 12 ISSUES OF NUMISMATIST.

Your ANA membership includes a subscription to Numismatist — the voice of the coin collecting hobby since 1891. Every month, you will receive a new issue filled with dazzling, full-color illustrations, tips on what and how to collect, columns by the hobby's most respected numismatists and much more.

2 BORROW THE BOOK BEFORE YOU BUY THE COIN.

The Dwight N. Manley Numismatic Library allows you to expand your horizons by borrowing any of 50,000 books, videos and slide programs. Or let us help you with your research.

3 LEARN WHAT THE EXPERTS KNOW!

The ANA is the largest, educational numismatic organization in the world. Members can participate in seminars, home-study courses and Numismatic Theatre presentations.

4 SAVE MONEY.

The MoneyMarket has the latest and best in books and supplies, available at a substantial member discount. And new members get a coupon for an additional 10% off Littleton Coin Supplies.

5 INSURANCE.

Insure your collection for as little as 50 cents per $100 of value. Your homeowners' policy can't match the rates or the coverage.

6 GRADING AND CONSERVATION SERVICES.

Avoid the middleman — ANA members can submit coins directly to Numismatic Guaranty Corporation (NGC) for grading and Numismatic Conservation Services (NCS) for conservation.

7 ANA CONVENTIONS: THE HIGHLIGHT OF THE NUMISMATIC YEAR.

Shop the bourse, attend Numismatic Theatre presentations and club meetings, and enjoy the hobby's largest collection of educational exhibits. The National Money Show™ (every spring) and the World's Fair of Money® (late summer) create opportunities for numismatists across the country to buy, sell, meet and learn with the best.

8 MEDIATION SERVICES.

Mediation for numismatic disputes is available through the ANA.
